WORLD AWAITS PEACE ARMISTICE

RED FLAG NOW FLOATS ATOP BATTLESHIPS OF KAISER; GARRISON REVOLT

[BY ATLANTIC CABLE AND A. P.]

LONDON, Nov. 8, 12:45 a.m.—Virtually all the German fleet has revolted, according to a dispatch received from The Hague. The men are complete masters at Kiel, Wilhelmshaven, Helgoland, Borkum and Cuxhaven. At Kiel the workers have joined the navy men and declared a general strike, said the dispatch.

LONDON, Nov. 7.—The greater part of the submarine crews in all the German naval harbors have joined the revolution, according to an Exchange Telegraph Company dispatch from Copenhagen.

AMSTERDAM, Nov. 7.—The important German naval base of Kiel is practically in the hands of a soldiers' council, formed on the approved Russian lines by sailors, marines and soldiers there. The governing authorities had themselves completely powerless before this newly-constituted authority.

Trouble began Sunday but discontent had been smoldering for some time, the main cause being the arrest of a number of sailors and marines for their refusal to obey orders, a reason similar to that which caused the naval mutiny a little more than a year ago.

It was on the battleship Kaiser that matters first came to a head. On that battleship the sailors endeavored to haul down the war flag and hoist the red flag in its place. The officers defending the flag with revolvers in their hands were eventually overwhelmed by the men. The war flag was hauled down and the revolutionary flag run up.

Two officers, including the commander of the Kaiser, were killed and several were wounded. The men obtained complete control of the ship, and similar events took place on other vessels stationed there.

During the night four companies of infantry arrived in town, with instructions to restore order. Three of them joined the mutineers, and the fourth was disarmed. The cavalry at Wenbeck was ordered to march on Kiel, but about a mile from the town they were held up by marines with machine guns and compelled to retire.

Meanwhile the soldiers' council had been formed. It took control of the food supplies. Food has always been a source of trouble at Kiel for some reason or other.

Admiral Souchon, the Governor at Kiel, who had recently been appointed to the station—he will be remembered as the officer who, at the head of the German-Turkish fleet at Constantinople, "arranged" the opening of hostilities between Turkey and the Entente—was arrested and detained some hours by the council, which also placed machine guns at various points in the city. The admiral was eventually released on his promise to take no steps against the council.

On the following day the Governor issued a manifesto, in which the council was requested to state its demands immediately. Following that the council and its supporters had a gathering in the Trade Union Hall at Kiel and set forth its programme of demands as follows:

(1.) Recognition of the soldiers' council.

(2.) Better treatment of the men on ships and ashore.

(3.) Abolition of the salute.

(4.) Equality for officers and men as regards victuals.

(5.) Abolition of the officers' canteen.

(6.) Release of all persons in prison for refusal to obey orders.

(7.) No punishment for men who had not returned to their ships.

The Governor was informed of the demands by a deputation from the council, and he agreed to them immediately. Then the men, on the other hand, agreed to resume duty at once, to obey orders and to maintain discipline. It was also agreed that anyone found looting would be dealt with by a drumhead court-martial.

While all this was going on thousands of men streamed from the ships into the town. The officers were powerless to prevent that, and various patrols placed on the land near the ships to preserve order joined the sailors and marines.

At the Wik barracks some shooting took place between men of the torpedo-boat division and those of the dock division. The former ordered the latter out to join the demonstration, and eventually the dock division men agreed, handing over their rifles and munitions in their barracks.

In short, the whole Wik garrison was with the mutinous sailors, and then an enormous procession of 20,000 men with music and red flags began to move forward. Many civilian workers joined, and nearly all were armed. Patriotic and soldiers' songs were sung as the vast demonstration moved toward the northern part of the town.

The procession stopped before the Arrestlokal, or prison, in the Feldstrasse, and those imprisoned there were released. Eventually the demonstrators went back to the barracks and ships.

LONDON, Nov. 7.—(By the Associated Press.) The entire German army and a great part of Schleswig is in the hands of the revolutionists, according to reports received in Copenhagen from Kiel and transmitted by the Exchange Telegraph Company.

The Wolff Bureau of Berlin announces that all work has stopped at Hamburg, owing to a strike, and that undisciplined acts and outrages have taken place. The news agency reports similar occurrences from Luebeck.

Altona, across the river from Hamburg, and Flensburg, to the northeast, are reported within the power of revolutionary soldiers. The airdrome at Apenrade in north Schleswig has been occupied and the airmen there placed under arrest.

Kiel is governed by the marines, soldiers and workers' council. All the work shops have been occupied by Red troops. The street-car lines and street railways are under the control of the workmen's council. There have been no disturbances.

After a conference between Secretary of State Hausman and Deputy Noske and the workmen's and soldiers' council, the following proclamation was issued:

"Comrades, for the first time political power is in the hands of the soldiers. Great work lies before us.

"But in order that its realization can take place the organization of our movement was necessary. We have formed a council of workmen and soldiers and it will be responsible for the preservation of order."

Following points were passed by the council:

First—Secretary Hausman will take care that the demands of the soldiers' and workmen's council shall be forwarded to the Reichstag.

Second—The immediate cessation of all military measures directed against the movement of the council.

Third—The navy has been ordered to leave the harbor.

Fourth—Military prisoners to be released.

A number of German garrisons on the south Baltic Coast have deserted and are going to Kiel, says a Copenhagen dispatch to the Exchange Telegraph Company. The red flag has been hoisted at Warnemunde, a seaport of Northern Germany and the port of Rostock on the Baltic seacoast.

Strikes at the imperial wharves at Cuxhaven and Wilhelmshaven are expected to occur today, the agency advices from Amsterdam added. The authorities have ordered the preventive arrest of sailors under suspicion.

The German authorities have decided to suppress the revolution at Kiel, according to a dispatch from Copenhagen to the Exchange Telegraph Company. Several thousand soldiers from Fehmarn Island have been ordered to Kiel. The Workmen and Soldiers' Council has decided to resist.

FREEDOM OF SPEECH.

Even the best informed men here are unable to arrive at a clear judgment, from the many conflicting reports as to the magnitude of the revolt against war among the German people, or how strong is the demand for the emperor's abdication. One fact is plain. There never was such freedom of speech in Germany as today.

Diplomats and soldiers are each trying to place the blame for their country's downfall on the other. Placards have blossomed out in Berlin saying that the Emperor and the Crown Prince must go.

Correspondents are permitted to telegraph from Berlin that the vacillating character of the Emperor is responsible for most of the nation's misfortunes.

ASKS FOR PATIENCE.

AMSTERDAM, Nov. 7.—Chancellor Max, in a speech in the Reichstag today, asked for patience and confidence, declaring that the government was doing its utmost to bring about peace, and that the nation must not lose its head.

PERSHING'S REPORT.

OPERATIONS OF FIRST ARMY.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

WASHINGTON, Nov. 7.—Gen. Pershing in his communique for tonight reports that the First Army continued its offensive east of the Meuse today, the Fifth Division and National Guard troops from Wisconsin and Michigan taking the heights overlooking Brandeville and other ground after hard fighting against a desperately-resisting enemy.

The famous Rainbow Division and the First (regular) Division seized the heights north and southeast of Sedan and the suburbs of that city west of the Meuse, the statement said. It added that the entire region between the Meuse and the Bar rivers now has been liberated by the First Army, in close co-operation with the French Fourth Army.

The guns of all calibers captured by the American First Army since November 1 now exceed 250, while a partial count of captured munitions and material shows more than 2000 machine guns, over 5000 rifles, seventy-five trench mortars and many anti-tank guns.

American troops entered the historic French city of Sedan at 1 o'clock yesterday afternoon, Gen. Pershing reported in his communique for this morning. All that portion of the city west of the River Meuse was occupied.

RAINBOW AND FIRST DIVISION CONTINGENTS FIRST TO ENTER CITY.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 7.—The taking of Sedan by American troops is a "great military achievement," Secretary Baker said today when informed that detachments of Lieut.-Gen. Liggett's army had entered the historic French city.

"The news of the taking of Sedan is very good news," said Mr. Baker. "It is a great military achievement. At our last report the Americans were at a distance, I believe, of five or six miles from Sedan, in the most difficult country along the western front, except the wooded territory in Flanders.

"The advance of Pershing's army from the 28th day of September to the 1st of November, slow, difficult, in the face of tremendous opposition and against the strongest of positions and its consequent very much more rapid advance, including the taking of Sedan, if that place actually has fallen, is as fine a military achievement in a limited area as has taken place in the war at any time."

WITH THE AMERICAN ARMY ON THE SEDAN FRONT, Nov. 7, 10:30 p.m.—(By the Associated Press.) It was contingents of the noted Rainbow Division and of the First Division that made the final whirlwind dash into Sedan.

Armistice Talk Fails to Slow Down Forward Dash of the Yankees.

WITH THE AMERICAN ARMY ON THE SEDAN FRONT, Nov. 7, 6:30 p.m.—The matter of peace negotiations failed to slow down in the slightest degree the operations along the front today. The news that Germany has taken definite steps to secure an armistice reached advanced headquarters, but was not accompanied by any orders affecting the big drive now in progress, and it is expected that the American line will be carried forward without pause.

With that part of Sedan resting on the western bank of the river occupied, the American army is consolidating its positions and preparing for a further advance.

Wiloseus, Sivry and Haraumont, to the south and to the east of Dun-sur-Meuse, were among the places taken this morning. The American troops are in close touch with the line between Inor and Martincourt, where the roadbed has been destroyed, the material having been carried away to strengthen the German positions on the heights beyond. To the south of this Remilly was captured.

The guns of all calibers captured by the American First Army since November 1 now exceed 250, while a partial count of captured munitions and material shows more than 2000 machine guns, over 5000 rifles, seventy-five trench mortars and many anti-tank guns.

WITH THE AMERICAN ARMY ON THE SEDAN FRONT, Nov. 7, 7 p.m.—(By the Associated Press.) The Americans Thursday east of the Meuse fought over some of the roughest country in France, taking the heights of the Woevre forest and advancing more than four kilometers, notwithstanding desperate rear guard activity of the German machine gunners.

Hill 350, the great hog-back between Laon and Maryaux, was taken in the morning by the Americans. The Americans pushed through the series of goods and over the rolling country, reaching the regions of Bandeville, Breheville and Lissey.

The German machine gunners fought as if they never had heard of peace talk, holding to their nests in many cases until they were killed or blasted out by the American artillery.

In rear guard actions machine gunners fell back into a series of fox holes and dugouts, all well supplied with cartridges, the rear guard fighters carrying their guns from trench to the other shelter until shot or taken prisoner.

The fires they started last night when quitting are still burning. There is no firing on the city by the other side and the civilians are seen in the streets cheering the Americans. Our troops have been hailed as the deliverers by the French, under the Hun for more than four years. You may picture the great celebration when the Americans control the city, which is a matter of hours.

It is a sweet reward for Americans to achieve this brilliant success after five weeks of bloody, disheartening fighting which made possible our victory. They know they broke the best German resistance the Kaiser could put against them and now they have changed the memory of Sedan from a sorrowful recollection to one of joy; have changed Sedan from a name of defeat to a name of victory. November 6 will go down in history along with July 18 as the two great dates. WITH THE AMERICAN ARMY, Nov. 7, 8 p.m.—When the German emissaries came across the front today to receive the armistice terms the German army was bottled up with only one avenue of escape—through Liege. This bottling was done by the First American Army, who were driving the last remaining Boches out of Sedan. Thus, men fighting under the Stars and Stripes have achieved what perhaps is the most brilliant victory of the whole war, certainly the most important offensive victory.

In our remarkable six-day advance of forty kilometers we have not only liberated 120 French villages and several thousand civilians, but have captured the city of Sedan, liberating 5000 French folk, and we have cut the German main railroad system of communication from the western front through Luxemburg. Not only that, we have put the German Fifth and Third armies holding the pivot of the whole front in full retreat.

In the last twenty-four hours of our forward sweep we have liberated these among other towns: Raucourt, Autrecourt, Haracourt, Angiecourt, Thelanne, Noyers, Madlincourt, Frenois, Chevenges and Dignan.

Our victorious troops move so fast they break all communication with the rear and the weather has made airplane observation impossible. That is why not until this morning did our commanders know that the doughboys had reached historic Sedan yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock and had drawn their line along the river which cuts off a small portion of the city. Early this morning the work of putting across the bridges started.

I have just returned from a vain attempt to get to Sedan. The roads are mined and torn and so filled with traffic that it is impossible to get there. But reports from there say the Germans are getting back north of Sedan. The fires they started last night when quitting are still burning. There is no firing on the city by the other side and the civilians are seen in the streets cheering the Americans. Our troops have been hailed as the deliverers by the French, under the Hun for more than four years. TRUCE SEEKERS NEAR FRENCH LINES; FOCH ORDERS FIRING CEASE

WASHINGTON, Nov. 8.—No information had come to waiting officials of the State and War Departments at 4 o'clock this morning that the German envoys sent to meet Marshal Foch had signed the armistice terms. At that hour even their passage through the French lines had not been reported.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

WASHINGTON, Nov. 8.—At 2 o'clock this (Friday) morning officials of the State and War departments who were keeping an all night vigil still were without information indicating that German envoys had signed the armistice terms. In fact, at that hour, no news, official or unofficial, had come that the envoys had passed through the French lines where they were due between 8 and 10 o'clock last night, Paris time.

PARIS, Nov. 7.—It was officially announced late tonight that the German armistice delegates should pass the French outposts between 8 and 10 o'clock tonight.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 7.—The offices of Secretary Baker, Secretary Lansing and the Committee on Public Information were kept open all night tonight, with officials waiting to announce immediately any news that might come of the result of Marshal Foch's meeting with the German armistice envoys.

LONDON, Nov. 7, 11:18 p.m.—According to the Press Association, up to 5 o'clock this evening neither the British nor the French governments had received any news of an armistice being signed. The British government was in telephonic communication with Versailles, and the Press Association said it could be stated definitely the rumor was unfounded.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 7.—Just before midnight the American government was informed by cable from Paris that the German armistice envoys had approached the French lines and were due to arrive for their meeting with Marshal Foch between 8 and 10 o'clock tonight, Paris time.

The statement was authorized at the State Department that no information had been received of the signing of armistice terms, or even of the actual arrival of the Germans within the French lines.

At 9 o'clock tonight it was stated officially that the government had not yet been advised of the arrival of the German envoys within the French lines to receive the American and Allied terms of armistice.

FRENCH ORDER TO CEASE FIRING GIVEN AS WHITE FLAG APPROACHES.

PARIS, Nov. 7, 11 p.m.—German grand headquarters requested Allied grand headquarters by wireless to permit the passage of the German delegation for armistice negotiations through the lines. The order was given to cease firing at this front at 3 o'clock in the afternoon until further orders.

The German wireless message asking for an appointment to meet Marshal Foch says:

"The German government would congratulate itself in the interests of humanity if the arrival of the German delegation on the Allies' front might bring about a provisional suspension of hostilities."

The message announced that the German plenipotentiaries would arrive at the French outposts on the Chimay-Guise road on Thursday between 8 and 10 o'clock in the evening.

The mission is headed by Mathias Erzberger, Secretary of State and head of the War Press Department, and includes Gen. H. K. A. Von Winterfield, former military attache at Paris; Count Alfred von Oberndorff, former Minister at Sofia; Gen. Von Grunell and Naval Captain Von Salow.

BULLETINS.

LONDON (via Montreal) Nov. 7.—The Allied fleets will anchor off St. Sophia, Constantinople, on Saturday, according to information received in London tonight.

LONDON, Nov. 1.—The British troops continued their steady advance along the whole front south of the Mons-Conde Canal.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 7.—Complete and final liberation of the peoples of the eastern Mediterranean countries from the oppression of the Turks and the establishment of governments deriving their authority from the free choice of the native population, are the aims of France and Great Britain.

CONSUL AT CHARLEROI KILLED NOT AMERICAN.

[BY A. P. DAY WIRE.]

WASHINGTON, Nov. 7.—The United States government did not maintain a Consul at Charleroi prior to the entrance of this country into the war and no information is available tonight to indicate the identity of any consular agent who might be referred to in an Amsterdam dispatch saying an American Consul had been killed during the Allied bombardment of Charleroi.

It was assumed the dispatch, based upon Berlin advices, might refer to a native Belgian, who prior to the war acted as consular agent for the United States.

Charleroi now being within the German lines, no accredited representatives of the United States government would be in the city.

ARMISTICE NOT REPORTED.

Washington Still Without Advices from Foch-German Envoys' Meeting.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 7.—Late tonight the American government had not been advised of the outcome of the meeting between Marshal Foch and the German armistice envoys, arranged to take place within the French lines at 5 o'clock this afternoon, Paris time.

The State Department authorized from time to time during the evening reiterations of an official denial issued by Secretary Lansing at 2:15 p.m. of the false report of the signing of an armistice which had thrown Washington, with other cities of the country, into an uproarious premature peace celebration. Official dispatches added nothing to information received during the day announcing the German representatives were approaching the western front.

Mr. Lansing's statement, supported by a similar one from Secretary Baker, and displayed on newspaper bulletin boards, failed to check the wildly-enthusiastic demonstration which started when an afternoon paper appeared on the street with the false story spread across the first page in black type. The report spread over the city by word of mouth and telephone, and soon bells were ringing, whistles blowing and the streets thronged with people.

HYSTERIA SPREADS.

For a time the citizens' committees which had planned demonstrations in anticipation of peace within a few days held their balance and announced their determination to await an official announcement. But excitement on the streets rose to hysteria, crowds assembled before the White House and government departments, and soon the committees were as wild as anybody else, and the demonstration was under way. Floats and banners were paraded on Pennsylvania avenue and other broad thoroughfares, bands played and banners were hoisted.

Before the White House a cheering mob surged before the gates calling for "Wilson." The President left the lunch table to see what it was all about, and his appearance on the veranda was the signal for an outburst that made the yelling of a minute before seem tame. In response to shouts, the President waved his napkin and smiled, but quickly disappeared within the White House doors, apparently realizing his presence was lending weight to a report of a momentous happening of which the government had no confirmation.

POWER OF ENVOYS.

On the question of whether the German delegation is empowered to act without communication with Berlin, regardless of what demands are made in the terms differed by Marshal Foch, depends whether an immediate cessation of hostilities may be in sight.

Marshal Foch is empowered fully to act for the Entente Allies and America, for the Supreme War Council at Versailles already has laid down the terms, and no changes are to be tolerated. It has been as-

FRENCH SMASH AHEAD TEN MILES.

PARIS, Nov. 7, 10:20 p.m.—With ever-increasing speed, the French troops are forcing the Germans back north of the Aisne, and on all the rest of the front which the French are fighting over, according to the War Office announcement tonight. An advance of ten miles has been made at certain points since yesterday.

WITH THE FRENCH ARMY IN FRANCE, Nov. 7.—(By Associated Press, 4 p.m.) Persistent rain and deepening mud, although making operations more difficult, do not appear to have checked pursuit of the Germans retreating toward the Belgian frontier. The advance continued this morning over the greater part of the French front, with such rapidity it was impossible to follow it with precision. Later reports are that the French cavalry is moving toward the Meuse and the infantry toward Mezieres.

Gen. Debeny's forces also are close upon the German rear guards, occupying numerous villages and carrying their advance toward Hirson. Capture of this important railway center will bring about the final crumbling of the transportation organization of the German armies in France.

Subsequent operations may become a race between the armies in retreat and those in pursuit to Aix-la-Chapelle, as the American successes have made the line of the Meuse a precarious refuge for the enemy.

BERLIN (via London) Nov. 7.—(By Atlantic Cable and A. P.) Tonight's War Office communication says: "On the western front the day was quieter."

Kaiser Maximilian, says an official dispatch from Berlin, has issued an appeal to the German people saying that "in order to make an end of the bloodshed" a deputation has left for the front and that "the negotiations will be seriously endangered by disturbances and lack of discipline."

PARIS, Nov. 7.—(By the Associated Press.) There is reason to believe, according to a Berne dispatch to the Temps, that the Premier of Bavaria has sent an urgent note to the German government to the effect that if an armistice is not concluded without delay, he will be obliged officially to order the Bavarian troops to return from the front.

This action, it is added, would be taken owing to the fact that Bavaria is menaced on her southern frontier by Allied forces and that the internal situation in Bavaria is unsatisfactory.

STOCKHOLM, Nov. 7.—(By the Associated Press.) Continuous demonstrations are taking place in Berlin, according to the Social Democraten. Twenty thousand deserters from the army are marching through the streets of the capital.

AMSTERDAM, Wednesday, Nov. 6.—(By the Associated Press.) All men liable to military service up to 26 years of age, throughout Czecho-Slovakia, have been called to the colors, according to a Prague dispatch to the Weser Zeitung of Bremen. It is said that this order includes German Bohemia. Comments in the Czech press indicate that the mobilization is against Germany.

Demands that the Germans withdraw their troops forthwith from Poland have been forwarded to Berlin by the new Polish national government, according to the Rhenish Westphalian Gazette of Essen.

COPENHAGEN, Nov. 7.—(By the Associated Press.) The diplomatic break between Germany and the Russian Soviet government, which developed yesterday, was foreshadowed by the Berlin newspapers a few days ago when they charged that the Russian Embassy in Berlin was the central point for distribution of seditious literature.

They pointed out that more than 400 couriers had been employed by M. Joffe, the Russian Ambassador, during the short period he had been in Berlin.

Ambassador Joffe categorically denied the charges but the "accidental" discovery of a package of inflammatory handbills in the luggage of a Bolshevik courier was held to demonstrate the falsity of Joffe's statement and was promptly followed by the breach in diplomatic relations.

FOCH FORCES WIDE FLIGHT.

Germans Retiring on Whole Front of the French Army; British Advance.

[ATLANTIC CABLE—EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

[Copyright.]

WITH THE FRENCH ARMY, Nov. 6.—The German retirement continues on the whole front with even greater rapidity than yesterday. During the night the French maintained contact with rear guards by patrols, and at dawn the pursuit was resumed.

The map shows how Foch followed his characteristic tactics of pressure on the salient which has been the source of his previous victories.

At present the British are less than eighty kilometers from Namur, while on the right the Franco-Americans — already well nigh astride the Metz-Sedan railroad and hardly twenty kilometers from Mezieres—are only a hundred distant from the Belgian fortress, which is assuming the character of a swiftly-narrowing gateway through which the German forces in France, nine armies strong, must retreat.

The extreme point of the salient near Rethel is fully 120 kilometers from Namur, and the Germans, hampered by lack of motor transport, are being crowded ever more dangerously along the roads and railroads, still open to them, but never free from the deadly assaults of the Allied aircraft.

It was reported some weeks ago that Foch said: "I have not yet had my battle." The operations now in progress justify the belief that the marshal's hour has come at last.

WITH THE FRENCH ARMIES IN FRANCE, Nov. 6.—(By the Associated Press, 10 p.m.) The French armies made another forward bound today of from five to seven miles all along their front from east of Guise to their junction with American forces west of the Meuse, pressing close on the rear guards left by the Germans who are in full retreat.

Gen. Debeney's troops, tramping through mud and drenched by rain, captured Nouvion and Regnaval forests. The booty taken over this front indicates that the enemy's retreat has been more precipitate than that of yesterday. Prisoners also say that the retreat will continue for a distance of fifteen or twenty miles further.

The march of Gen. Gouraud's men toward the Meuse went on during the day with increased speed. After working all night under heavy shell and machine-gun fire in the constructing of bridges for infantry and artillery over the Aisne and the Ardennes Canal, they crossed the swollen stream in force and took up their advance this morning, throwing back the rear guards, taking Rethel and advancing into the Rethel pocket for an average distance of six and a half miles, and liberating twenty-four villages with the greater part of their inhabitants.

In some towns were found men of military age whom the Germans had recently brought back from behind their lines.

The cavalry of the First Army had this afternoon reached the road from Vervins to Avesnes.

A considerable number of prisoners and immense booty fell into the hands of the French army during the day.

LONDON, Nov. 6.—(By the Associated Press.) The British official report on operations in Belgium tonight says:

"On the Scheldt, opposite Ghent and on the Terneuzen Canal our patrols were met with machine-gun fire. South of Ghent the hostile artillery was fairly active."

BRITISH HEADQUARTERS IN FRANCE, Nov. 6.—The Germans are retreating all along the front of the First, Third and Fourth British Armies, which are pressing them hard.

HUNGARY PERMITS HUN ARMY TO MARCH HOME.

BERNE, Nov. 7.—The German field marshal, Mackensen, on requesting permission for his army to pass through Hungary from the Balkans to Germany, was informed by the Hungarian government the request would be granted on condition that the troops lay down arms on entering Hungarian soil. The arms are to be forwarded to Germany later.

A dispatch from Innsbruck says the Bavarian War Minister has informed the Tyrol authorities that a considerable number of Bavarian troops would march to the northern Tyrol frontier as a guard.

ENEMY SUBMARINE SHELLS LIFEBOAT.

ATHENS, Nov. 7.—A German submarine, after having torpedoed a Greek sailing ship, is said to have fired on the crew when the men tried to escape from the sinking vessel, says an official telegram from Crete.

The lifeboat has been examined and found to be shattered by projectiles from the submarine's guns.

CAPITAL LACKS ARMISTICE NEWS

sumed, based on the usual practice of negotiators in agreeing upon an armistice, that the Germans also are empowered fully to sign for their government.

It is regarded as possible that since the German delegates did not know the terms of the armistice until they met Marshal Foch, they might have planned to have waited a perfunctory word from Berlin before closing the negotiations. With military telegraphs and wireless at their disposal, little time would be consumed in this.

SHIFT RESPONSIBILITY.

There is reason to believe that in a despairing hope of retaining some shadow of control over the future government of Germany, no matter what form that may take, the Kaiser and the military leaders will insist that the Reichstag, representing the German people, assume full share of responsibility for the humiliating armistice and peace terms which must be accepted. For this reason the official view here is that the armistice commissioners would go through the form of communicating with their government.

The inclusion of Gen. Winterfeldt and other members of the Prussian military class among the German envoys attracted attention here.

Gen. Winterfeldt was a military attache for Germany at Paris before the war. It was recalled today in September, 1913, he was injured severely in an automobile accident at Griselles.

NO CENSORSHIP.

Late tonight George Creel, chairman of the Committee on Public Information, issued the following statement as the result of widely-circulated reports that the cable censorship was holding up dispatches which might confirm the false announcement cabled today that an armistice had been signed:

"Any such report is absolutely untrue. No dispatch bearing upon any phase of the armistice negotiations is being stopped or halted in the New York office. The channel is wide open."

Capt. Pratt, acting chief of naval operations, authorized the statement at 3:45 o'clock that the navy had received no official information whatever of the signing of an armistice. This was in denial of persistent reports that had given out such information.

At 4:20 o'clock it was stated officially that the United States government had not been advised of the signing of an armistice.

Three-thirty o'clock Washington time is approximately 8:30 p.m. in Paris.

TIME OF MEETING.

The State Department was advised that Marshal Foch would receive the German envoys at 5 o'clock p.m., French time (noon Eastern United States, 9 a.m. Pacific Coast.)

The unofficial report which started celebrations had said the armistice had been signed at 11 o'clock French time, or six hours before the time set for the meeting.

Later it was learned that at 11 o'clock this morning, when the navy censor reported an unofficial cablegram from Paris saying the armistice had been signed, an official message of inquiry was rushed to Paris and three hours later brought a reply on which Secretary Lansing based his announcement.

HALF OF SENATE IS REPUBLICAN.

G.O.P. Wins Forty-eight Seats in the Upper House, with Chance for Victory in Michigan and Idaho; Majority is Certain in Lower Branch.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

WASHINGTON, Nov. 7.—With the Michigan and Idaho Senatorial contests still in doubt, late returns from Tuesday's elections tonight give the Republicans a total of forty-eight Senators—half the membership, and lacking one vote necessary to insure control—and forty-six to the Democrats.

In Michigan, the Republican candidate, Truman H. Newberry, was reported to have increased his lead to about 6300 votes over Henry Ford, with 125 precincts records missing. In Idaho, the Democratic candidate, Senator Nugent, was credited with an increased lead of about 600 votes over former Gov. Gooding, Republican.

Republican control of the House now is beyond all question, with only one district missing — the Second Montana—the returns tonight show:

Republicans, 238; Democrats, 195, including one independent; Socialist, 1; missing, 1.

THE STATE.

LATEST CALIFORNIA FIGURES.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 7.—A definite majority for the "drys" in the upper house of the next California Legislature was still lacking tonight. Ratification of national prohibition was believed assured, however, on the face of earlier returns, which had virtually assured membership in the Senate to twenty Senators indorsed by the Anti-Saloon League of California. In case of a tie vote, dry leaders pointed out the deciding vote would be cast by the Lieutenant-Governor-elect, C. C. Young, who was indorsed by the league.

The only Senatorial contests undecided today were those in the Second and Sixth districts. In the former incomplete returns gave Senator W. B. Shearer, Democrat, a 900 lead over E. W. Enfendahl, Republican, indorsed by the Anti-Saloon League. In the Sixth, with five precincts missing, Senator W. E. Duncan, Democrat, indorsed by the league, had a lead of twenty-one votes over Dr. W. F. Gates, Republican.

Republicans were assured of at least thirty of the forty votes in the Senate by returns received today. Senator C. W. Lyon and Henry H. Yonkin, in the Thirty-fourth and Thirty-eighth districts, Los Angeles, respectively, were elected. Both were indorsed by the Anti-Saloon League, which had estimated certain dry votes in the districts prior to the election.

D. H. Hart won a four-cornered fight among independent candidates in the Twenty-ninth, Los Angeles. The dry forces had made no indorsement of Hart.

STEPHENS CERTAIN.

Decisiveness of the proposed bone-dry amendments defeat and Gov. Stephens's victory at Tuesday's election in California were made only more certain tonight by late returns. Nine-tenths of the State voted wet by 45,000 and seven-eighths of the State gave Gov. Stephens a plurality of 115,000 over Theodore A. Bell.

No upsets in the results were made for any offices.

The vote on amendments:

No. 1, liquor regulation—5175 precincts of 6191, gave: Yes, 212,139; no, 276,717.

No. 20, health insurance—4762 precincts gave: Yes, 99,177; no, 247,250.

No. 22, bone dry—5610 precincts gave: Yes, 204,216; no, 249,665.

State ticket results were:

Governor: 5448 precincts gave: Stephens, 352,646; Bell, 236,751; Roser, 11,122; Rolph (written in,) 13,374.

Lieutenant-Governor, 4673 precincts gave: Young, 275,655; Snyder, 204,831; Beals, 18,163.

Superintendent of Public Instruction: 4201 precincts gave: Wood, 208,890; Hyatt, 176,615.

STATE SENATORIAL.

[BY A. P. DAY WIRE.]

SACRAMENTO, Nov. 7.—The outcome of the contests for State Senator in the Second and Sixth Districts still was uncertain today.

In the Sixth District Senator W. E. Duncan had a lead of twenty-one votes over Dr. W. F. Gates, with five precincts, four of which are mountain country, missing, the vote stood: Duncan, 6970; Gates, 6949.

In the Second District Senator William B. Shearer had increased his lead over Ernest W. Elfendahl to 900 votes. A number of precincts had not been heard from. Compilations of returns at noon today gave Shearer, 8390; Elfendahl, 2490.

OKLAHOMA CITY (Okla.) Nov. 7.—On the basis of incomplete returns received from 400 precincts up to 10 o'clock this morning, it was apparent that the suffrage amendment, voted on in Tuesday's general election, had overcome the handicap seen yesterday. Returns from 400 voting precincts out of 2500 gave suffrage 29,512 for and 19,899 against. The amendment must receive a majority of all the votes cast.

IDAHO.

BOISE, Nov. 7.—An official count will be necessary to determine whether Senator John F. Nugent, Democrat, has been re-elected in Idaho. With virtually complete count Nugent leads, Frank R. Gooding on official figures, by 626.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK, Nov. 7.—With forty-three districts missing and the soldier vote as yet uncounted, Alfred E. Smith, Democrat, had a majority of 12,235 votes today over Gov. Charles S. Whitman, Republican, in the gubernatorial contest, on the face of revised returns.

The soldier vote, estimaated at 15,000, was conceded by the Republicans to favor Smith.

SOUTH DAKOTA.

SIOUX FALLS, Nov. 7.—Woman suffrage carried in South Dakota, according to incomplete returns received from Tuesday's election. The amendment by which suffrage carried amended the State constitution so as to confine the vote to native-born citizens or those of foreign birth who have completed their naturalization papers.

MINNESOTA.

ST. PAUL, Nov. 7.—With half the precincts in the State reported, Gov. Burnquist, Republican, had a lead of nearly 43,000 votes over David H. Evans, the Non-Partisan League candidate for governor, early today. Fred Wheaton, Democrat, was nearly 20,000 behind Evans.

The returns on the prohibition amendment continued to come in slowly. The drys had a lead of less than 1000.

OREGON.

PORTLAND, Nov. 7.—United States Senator Charles L. McNary was 16,000 votes ahead of his opponent, Oswald West, Democrat, today, and it was believed his lead would be increased when all the votes were counted. Gov. Withycombe was leading his Democratic opponent, Walter M. Pierce, by almost as large a majority.

WASHINGTON.

SEATTLE, Nov. 6.—With returns still incomplete, Washington's bone-dry law was believed tonight to have been supported by a large majority of the voters Tuesday.

SPOKANE (Wash.) Nov. 7.—With over 40,000 votes of the Fifth Congressional District counted, Judge J. Stanley Webster (Rep.) has a lead of 2266 over Congressman C. C. Dill.

The vote outstanding is not considered sufficient to give Dill an opportunity of overcoming Webster's lead.

In the Fourth District practically complete returns give Dr. J. W. Summers (Rep.) 15,674 votes, as against 11,916 for W. E. McCroskey (Dem.)

ALASKA.

JUNEAU, Nov. 7.—Results of Tuesday's contest for the Alaska Congressional delegateship today promised to be as close as they were two years ago, when James Wickersham, then delegate, and Charles E. Sulzer ran so near that Sulzer obtained the post only after taking the fight to court. This year the same two men were candidates. Incomplete returns today from Southwestern Alaska, the Seward Peninsula section and portions of Southeastern Alaska gave Wickersham a lead of about twenty votes. Both claimed the election.

NEW MEXICO.

ALBUQUERQUE, Nov. 7.—With a few precincts missing, returns today indicated the re-election of Albert B. Fall (Rep.,) from New Mexico, to the United States Senate by approximately 1900 plurality over his Democratic opponent, Congressman William B. Walton.

Benigno C. Hernandez (Rep.,) former Congressman, has been elected as Congressman from the State by less than 1000 plurality over Judge Granville A. Richardson (Dem.)

The entire Republican State ticket has been elected, with the exception of the candidate for justice of the Supreme Court.

NEBRASKA.

LINCOLN, Nov. 7.—Election returns show that a sufficient number of State legislators who favor nation-wide prohibition were elected to the State Legislature at Tuesday's election to insure ratification of the Federal prohibition amendment at the Legislature's session in January a statement by Mrs. Mamie M. Claflin, president of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union of Nebraska, said today.

MONTANA.

HELENA, Nov. 6.—Opponents of United States Senator Thomas Walsh and Congressman John M. Evans, Democrats, tonight conceded their re-election in the election in Montana yesterday.

Carl Riddick, Republican candidate for Congress in the Second Montana District, maintained his lead today over Harry B. Mitchell, Democratic candidate, in returns received from Tuesday's election. The figures showed Riddick received 19,237 votes and Mitchell 17,834.

The election of United States Senator Walsh and Congressman John Evans was conceded by their Republican opponents. The votes on United States Senator in 974 precincts follow:

Walsh, 42,846; Lanstrum, Republican, 36,382; Rankin, National party, 22,134.

MICHIGAN.

DETROIT, Nov. 7.—On the face of virtually complete unofficial returns tonight, Lieut.-Com. Truman H. Newberry, Republican, has been elected to the United States Senate over Henry Ford, Democrat, by a majority of approximately 8500. With fifty-nine rural precincts yet to report the vote stood: Newberry, 213,995; Ford, 205,594, a lead for the naval commander of 8401. The missing precincts are not expected materially to change the result.

The majority of Gov. Sleeper and the remainder of the Republican State ticket on the final count will be approximately 50,000, or one-half the normal Republican majority in Michigan.

Suffrage will have an affirmative majority of 25,000.

ARIZONA.

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

PHOENIX, Nov. 7.—This evening both political committees are claiming the State for Governor, the Republicans by about 200 and the Democrats by ninety-two. A large number of remote precincts are missing and readily may alter the figures. There is disagreement in the figures covering Navajo, Cochise and Santa Cruz counties, and there are shortages of precincts in Coconino, Mohave and Yavapai. Only four of the fourteen counties are claimed for Campbell: Maricopa by 2800, Pima by 644, Pinal by 85; and Coconino by 38. The banner Democratic county, Gila, gave Colter only 765 plurality, 1000 short of Hunt's vote two years ago, and Cochise county gave him only 829. Mohave is expected to bring up the Colter strength. A close estimate indicates that Campbell will end about 100 in the lead.

ENVOYS REACH FRENCH LINES.

The documents published tonight follow:

"There was received the 7th of November, at 12:30 a.m. the following from the German high command by order of the German government to Marshal Foch:

"The German government, having been informed through the President of the United States that Marshal Foch had received powers to receive accredited representatives of the German government and communicate to them conditions of an armistice, the following plenipotentiaries have been named by it:

"'Mathias Erzberger, Gen. H. K. M. Winterfeldt, Count Alfred von Oberndorff, Gen. Von Gruenell and Naval Captain Von Salow.

"'The plenipotentiaries request that they be informed by wireless of the place where they can meet Marshal Foch. They will proceed by automobile with subordinates of the staff to the place thus appointed.'

"Orders were given to cease fire on the front at 3 o'clock p.m. until further orders.

"On November 7 at 1:25 a.m. Marshal Foch sent the following to the German command:

"'If the German plenipotentiaries desire to meet Marshal Foch and ask him for an armistice they will present themselves to the French outposts by the Chimay-Fourmies-La Capelle-Guise road. Orders have been given to receive them and conduct them to the spot fixed for the meeting.

"'A German wireless dispatch received November 7 at 1 p.m. said:

"'German general headquarters to the Allies' general headquarters: The German commander-in-chief to Marshal Foch: The German plenipotentiaries for an armistice leave Spa today. They will leave here at noon and reach at 5 o'clock this afternoon the French outposts by the Chimay-Fourmies-La Capelle-Guise road. They will be ten persons in all, headed by Secretary of State Ersberger.'"

ARRESTS BARE LUMBER MEN IN CONSPIRACY.

NEW YORK, Nov. 7.—With the arrest of thirteen officers and employees of the Coastwise Lumber Supply Company today it was disclosed by Federal officials that an alleged conspiracy had been in progress to defraud the government of thousands of dollars through not delivering lumber for which the government paid.

All the defendants were taken before Federal Judge McGoldrick, who admitted them to bail pending examination next Thursday. Bail for McQuade and Curtis was fixed at $15,000 each and that for Van Gorben at $10,000. The eleven employees were released on bond in sums ranging from $2500 to $5000.

AMERICANS WIN GREAT VICTORY.

COWS PULL HUN GUNS.

The German retreat was made with great difficulty. Our guns were hammering them as they ran and in haste leaving behind them uncounted millions of war materials. They have been swept clear of horses and oxen have been hitched to the German guns. One report has it that French cows are hitched to German seventy-sevens toiling far ahead from the pursuing Americans.

Food, lumber, clothing, coal, ammunition, rifles, cannon—everything used in war is left behind by the Hun in the retreat, which became precipitate. This haste is well illustrated by the fact that Germans were not able to complete the task of getting away the civilians from Sedan which started three days ago when the German command despaired of stopping the Americans south of the Meuse and planned to defend Sedan, which was abandoned because of the demoralization of the forces.

Deserters tell us of 100 Germans from one division leaving and fleeing home, convinced it was useless to fight the Americans any longer. An idea of the elaborate plan the Germans made to keep us back is given by the fact that at Sedan were found incompleted dams for flooding the Meuse below the city. This was only slightly successful and is not much of a menace. We destroyed the dams this morning.

The Germans, however, found time to strip the French towns of all valuables. This, of course, was being done some weeks ago. Vegetables were dug up from the gardens and shipped to Germany, beasts of burden were stolen, food was started back and houses stripped of copper and cooking utensils.

The German war works built in occupied territory were stripped weeks ago, according to civilians who said in the past two weeks both Boche officers and privates freely admitted the impending military disaster for the fatherland. Yet the Germans did not forget to mine the houses, dugouts and roads.

Devilish contrivances were found in towns where the civilians still remain to show the Boche disregard for consequences if they could do the least bit of hurt to their opponents. Special attention was paid to the more important houses where the Americans might well have headquarters.

Many civilians are in sorry plight because the ordinary supply of foods from American relief sources was cut off by the war's turn. The American army is rushing up food for them and taking them away from towns likely to be shelled by the Hun.

The speed of the advance means of course great difficulties of transportation and great difficulties also of getting up guns over the torn highways. We have made out by leaving half our guns and doubling the trams for the rest, thus getting up our 75's. Our gunners are avoiding shooting into towns and are confining their fire to the crossroads and highways used by the fleeing Boches.

A heavy fog all day made it impossible for our aviators to keep any tab on the flying Germans. It is impossible to see more than a hundred yards ahead. This is aiding the Boche withdrawal.

German resistance is weakening east of the Meuse, where our advance continues with unceasing pressure. The German positions are imperiled by our advance east of the river, which we have crossed at a dozen places. Not only this, but reports say the Germans are pulling back before the Second American Army south of Metz.

Deserters say the Germans have begun to dismantle the mines and iron mills of the Briey basin which have furnished four-fifths of their war steel since they stole the mines in 1914.

News of great events had spread through our ranks. Ten hours on the roads today I passed hundreds of trucks of doughboys humping along in the rain and yelling and cheering that they had whipped the Boche.

If anything remains to be done we have many divisions which will never feel satisfied until they get at least one blow at the Huns.

With the Fourth French Army smashing the Aisne at many points today coming up on our left, Petain is pushing on towards Mezieres and Charleville.

Gen. Foch's message to Gen. Pershing gives a big importance to our victory.

The Germans have sent Americans a list of villages with civilians presumably. One of these was shelled seven hours with gas regardless of the fact they had left 500 civilians there. Longueville, where 216 civilians were left, was also shelled. Because of this Boche warfare the Americans were forced today to take these people back to safety.

Late today Americans at Longueville received a message brought from Stenay asking that our men reach them soon with something to eat and also to get them from under the German shellfire.

Up near Longueville today I saw what looked like a picnic. It was 200 and more civilians being taken from their homes at Longueville where they had lived in bondage for four years.

I asked for the Mayor, but was told Monsieur Henri had said he had stuck to the town for four years and was not going to leave it now.

WITH THE AMERICAN ARMY NORTHWEST OF VERDUN, Nov. 6.—(By Associated Press, 9 p.m.) A daring exploit by two American aerial observers, Lieut. William Erwin of Chicago and Lieut. Becum, the first-named the only American observation ace, was revealed today when the advancing infantry came upon them holding off Germans with the machine guns of their airplane. The aviators and their machine were rescued.

Erwin and Becum flew over Boche yesterday and fired on the troops there. They were forced to land on the German side of the line owing to engine troubles. The landing was made near two machine gun nests, which the American airmen silenced. Then they fought off the would-be captors throughout the night and were still defending themselves tenaciously near Tenay when the infantry advanced and found them.

PEACE REPORT CAUSE OF JOY.

Californians Celebrate the Premature "News."

Didn't Await Confirmation; Know End's Near.

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

LONG BEACH, Nov. 7.—By far the wildest demonstration in the city's history took place here today immediately following the circulation of the report, although lacking confirmation, that Germany had signed the armistice proposals of the Allies.

Pandemonium, in its wildest sense, broke loose. Men, women, boys and girls rushed pell mell out of the downtown offices and stores, 'congregating' on street corners, blockading all thoroughfares, putting a crimp in both street and sidewalk traffic and splitting the air with shouts, screams, yells and whistles.

Impromptu parades formed a means of expression of the outbursts of hilarity. In the processions were automobiles, packed to overflowing, and pedestrians of both sexes and all ages.

Men embraced each other, women cried, and citizens generally became uncontrollably excited. Influenza quarantine rules were absolutely forgotten or ignored. No power of the municipality could have stopped the congregation of joy-mad mobs. It was not necessary to declare a holiday. Everyone quit work, and the city offices and banks closed before noon. All ordinances regulating the discharge of firearms within the city limits were ignored. Rifles, shotguns and revolvers were fired in the heart of the downtown business district.

At noon many of the largest stores in the city, seeing the utter futility of trying to do business, closed and told their employees to go out and join the crowds. "Closed, gone to do everything but get drunk," and "Closed, gone to the Kaiser's funeral," were among the signs posted in big letters on the outside of offices and stores.

One aged woman, whose husband was killed in the Civil War, and whose only son is wearing the uniform of an American soldier over there, was washing her hair in the rear of her humble cottage near Broadway and American when she heard the report that the war was over. With the soap suds still in her wet hair, streaming down her back, she grabbed a tow bell and ran down American avenue, proclaiming the tidings as she went.

SAN BERNARDINO STAMPEDES.

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

SAN BERNARDINO, Nov. 7.—San Bernardino did not wait for confirmation of the armistice settlement rumor and for hours today and tonight the city was in an uproar, the Kaiser was burned in effigy, and thousands joined in a gigantic carnival parade of celebration. Taking for granted that the rumors were authentic, 2000 Santa Fe employees bolted from the shops and offices shortly before noon and paraded the business sections. Officials stated that they could not hold the stampede.

PASADENA HAS PARADE.

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

PASADENA, Nov. 7.—A great impromptu parade was held in Pasadena shortly before noon today, following the unconfirmed report that Germany had signed the armistice terms and had surrendered. A few autos bearing flags and placards announcing the news and laden with city officials and Board of Trade members started out through the streets and in a few minutes more than 300 were in line, with everybody yelling and every horn honking. People flocked downtown despite the "flu" orders against crowds. The celebration lasted several hours.

RIVERSIDE GETS DELIRIOUS.

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

RIVERSIDE, Nov. 7.—This city waxed deliriously joyful this forenoon for a time over special edition announcements of the alleged signing of the Allies' armistice terms. The official celebration has yet to take place, however, as Mayor Porter and Chamber of Commerce officials will have to be assured of the authenticity of the announcements.

ONTARIO JOYOUSLY WILD.

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

ONTARIO, Nov. 7.—All Ontario went wild when the rumor spread that the war was over reached this city this morning. Whistles blew continually for hours and church bells chimed far into the night. Every business house promptly closed its doors and this afternoon, under the direction of the Ontario Chamber of Commerce, more than 1000 gaily-decorated automobiles paraded the streets of Ontario and Upland.

LOS ANGELES HARBOR.

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

LOS ANGELES HARBOR, Nov. 7.—Never was a community more suddenly turned into jubilation than was San Pedro this morning when premature news came that an armistice had been signed. Every whistle along the water front blew, sirens added shrill notes and bells rang.

Fully 2500 men left the plant of the Los Angeles Shipbuilding and Dry Dock Company at 12:30 o'clock and, headed by the shipyard band, paraded the streets. An automobile filled with soldiers from Fort MacArthur raced through the business section, with its occupants waving flags and shouting like mad. Sailors turned handsprings in the streets in joy, mingled with regret that they were not sent to the front.

Practically every store and business house in San Pedro closed for the afternoon. A parade of several thousand men from the Naval Reserve training station, headed by the band and executive officers, added to the festivities.

Then came the news that the first information had not been confirmed. But at the worst, while the people on the street were disappointed, they believed that even if it was premature, the story earlier in the day was the essence of truth and a prophecy of the near future.

Few Escape.

There are few indeed who escape having at least one cold during the winter months, and they are fortunate who have but one and get through with it quickly and without any serious consequences. Take Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and observe the directions with each bottle, and you are likely to be one of the fortunate ones. The worth and merit of this remedy has been fully proven. There are many families who have always used it for years when troubled with a cough or cold, and with the very best results.—[Advertisement.

PEACE STORY PROVES GREAT HOAX.

After Joyous Celebrations in Nearly All American Cities, Cablegram Announcing Signing of Armistice by Germany is Found to be Absolutely Untrue.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

NEW YORK, Nov. 7.—False reports that Germany had accepted the terms of the armistice and that fighting had ended threw the country into a delirium today and turned out to be the greatest hoax of recent years.

Official assurances that the report was false failed to check the almost riotous demonstrations which swept over many American cities and millions of Americans will not know they were fooled until they read the morning papers.

A dispatch cabled from France to the United Press and picked up and circulated all through the country by another news agency declared the armistice signed at 11 o'clock this morning and fighting ended at 2 o'clock this afternoon.

None of these unfounded reports, of course, was received or distributed by the Associated Press, which, on the contrary, was able by investigation conducted through official channels to establish that the story was a hoax.

Official dispatches from France to the State Department at Washington testify that the German commissioners were not even to meet Marshal Foch until 5 o'clock this afternoon and dispatches received on the Sedan front show that at 6:30 p.m. the troops still were advancing.

After cabling to France and receiving an official reply, Secretary Lansing from the State Department in Washington issued this statement:

"The report that the armistice with Germany had been signed is not true. When it reached the Department of State this morning a telegram in reply to that of the department was received from Paris. It stated that the armistice had not yet been signed and that the German representatives would not meet Marshal Foch until 5 p.m. Paris time, or 12 noon, Washington time."

The false report was not easily overtaken by the truth and as it spread through the country it gathered momentum until demonstrations approaching hysteria ruled in many cities. Business was suspended, schools were closed, bells were rung, whistles shrieked, prayers were offered in churches, parading citizens jamed the streets and the scenes usually attendant on New Year's Eve and election night were intensified.

The New York Exchange, as well as the curb market, were closed at 2:30 p.m. after a hurried meeting of the governors. A market which at first appeared to be unresponsive suddenly developed activity which shot up some of the so-called peace stocks from 2 to 12 points. Exchanges in other cities were similarly effected.

COPY OF CABLEGRAM.

Here follows a copy of the cablegram received by the United Press at its New York office:

"Unipress, New York:

"Paris: Armistice Allies signed eleven morning; hostilities ceased two afternoon. Sedan taken morning by Americans.

[Signed] "Howard, Sims."

("Unipress" is cable code address for United Press; Howard is Roy W. Howard, president of the United Press, and Sims is William Philip Sims, Paris correspondent of the United Press.)

When it was 6:30 o'clock tonight in London, the Foreign Office pronounced unfounded the rumor that the armistice had been signed and at that hour no word had been received in the British capital that the German delegation had crossed the French lines. It should be borne in mind that it was then four hours and a half after the hour reported as set for the cessation of hostilities and more than seven hours after the hour reported as the singing of the armistice.

Government telegraph lines connect London and the British headquarters, not far from the place fixed for the meeting of the German commissioners with Marshal Foch, and London, therefore, is certain to receive prompt reports when a truce is arranged.

Tonight as the clocks in France were turning toward midnight there still was no word that the German commissioners had appeared at Marshal Foch's headquarters and much less affixed their signatures to an armistice.

The hoax recalled to the public mind others which had fooled the country if not the world. One was the alleged discovery of human beings on the moon and the other was Dr. Cook's claim of discovery of the North Pole.

A news hoax, however, more closely paralleling today's was the one perpetrated on the country at the death of Pope Pius X. It was announced by the United Press some hours before it occurred, but as the dispatch did not specify the hour and minute a great achievement in giving the news to the world was claimed.

In the present instance, however, there will be abundant official evidence to guide the public. The armistice being a historic document will bear the hour and minute at which the signatures are set upon it, and the hour at which hostilities are to end likewise will be recorded officially and announced to the world.

No one, of course, can say with certainty when the armistice will be signed. Official proof, however, and the hours rolling steadily onward are ample evidence that it was not signed at 11 o'clock this morning and that fighting did not stop at 2 o'clock this afternoon.

Moreover, it never has been expected that the terms of the armistice on the western front might be accepted at one brief meeting. Many questions are involved now which were not involved when armistices were granted to Austria, Bulgaria and Turkey.

One of the principal points concerns the disposition of the German fleet, so vital to England. Now that the fleet is in the hands of the revolutionaries it is probable that the German plenipotentiaries may not at once be enabled to give the assurances the Allies will demand. It should be recalled in this point that Great Britain insisted on having one of her admirals present with Marshal Foch at the meeting with the commissioners and that Germany sent Admiral von Hintze.

So far as is known tonight the erroneous report was published in only two cities in Europe—in London and in Brest, France. The London newspaper later withdrew its edition and reprinted a retraction. The publication in Brest was by a newspaper which received the report from the United Press.

A question being asked tonight by many is why the naval censors passed the dispatch for publication if it was not true. The answer is that censors do not pass upon the truth or falsity of dispatches; they are only concerned with whether they contain information likely to be of value to an enemy, or damaging to the Entente military forces.

NEW YORK DELIRIOUS.

Sophisticated New York became delirious with joy today over the unfounded report that Germany had agreed to armistice terms which meant unconditional surrender.

The excitement which seized the city's millions at the word "peace" was picturesque and ear-splitting, but as realization grew that it was premature, its tragic side came forward.

Not all the celebrators had joined in the hilarious flag waving, horn blowing, impromptu parades. Thousands of fathers, mothers, wives and sisters went into every church with open doors to offer prayers of gratitude because they thought fighting had ceased.

Fifth avenue was filled with automobiles from Central Park to Washington Square, and multitudes of people packed the sidewalks. The most impressive scene in the length of the street was inside St. Patrick's Cathedral. In the semi-darkened nave, hundreds of reverent men and women knelt in thanksgiving. In hundreds of other churches were similar gatherings.

While thousands went to pray, other thousands gave vent to their joy in more convivial surroundings. The prohibition gloom which has shrouded cafes and saloons was dispelled, and they were filled with revelers. The "Star Spangled Banner" with variations and without accompaniment was the air which floated most frequently through the swinging doors.

The demonstration began when extra editions of newspapers appeared on the streets bearing dispatches purporting to have been sent from London and Paris, saying the armistice terms had been signed and would become effective at 2 o'clock this afternoon.

These were some of the results of the "peace" report:

Police Commissioner Enright ordered the city's giant sirens to sound the tidings and all other whistles and bells in the city followed suit. The racket spread through New Jersey, Long Island and Westchester like fire through prairie grass.

Mayor Hylan ordered all city offices closed for the day, and issued a proclamation calling on the public to celebrate. The Mayor also ordered a great parade tonight to mark "the end of the world war," but later directed that the pageant be postponed until it is known the war is over.

Thousands of offices, business places and factories suspended operations so their employees could make merry.

Stock exchanges closed at 2:30 p.m., and Wall street soon was deserted.

Every person in New York not lame, halt, blind, sick or in jail joined in the demonstration.

Schools were dismissed early and children paraded.

Vehicle traffic in the principal thoroughfares was suspended because motors and wagons could not force a path through the densely packed multitudes.

Hours after the report of an armistice had been officially denied the city was a bedlam. It seemed New Yorkers were much more eager to credit reports of peace than believe the war not yet over.

A paper "snowstorm" was a picturesque, but expensive feature of the demonstration. Someone in the towers of the Municipal Building, imitating the procedure of aviators who had "bombed" the city with leaflets during the various Liberty Loan and war-work campaigns, loosed a shower of paper bits. Workers in near-by buildings followed his lead.

This form of demonstration caught the popular fancy and for more than three hours Broadway from the City Hall to the Battery was flooded with floating white. Times Square and Fifth avenue, from Madison Square north to the Plaza, similarly were "snowed under."

Pedestrians ploughed through War Savings Stamps literature, ticker tape, torn sheets of newspapers, telephone directories, telegraph blanks and conglomerate paper waste of thousands of offices, ankle-deep, with "drifts" reaching to the knees piled here and there by the wind, grotesquely over trees in the downtown parks and on awnings and signs of business houses.

CHICAGO.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

CHICAGO, Nov. 7.—Chicago shrieked with joy today in a premature celebration of peace.

The report of the end of the world war, flashed over the city by bells and whistles, was started by a newspaper dispatch which was NOT carried by the Associated Press.

Later dispatches from Washington and London officially announcing that the armistice had not yet been signed failed to halt the crowds surging through streets white with tons of scrap paper thrown from office buildings.

All departments of the City Hall, courts, stores, offices, munition plants and factories closed and their workers turned the downtown section into a carnival. Waste baskets and drawers filled with bits of paper emptied from windows filled the air.

At one place two 100-gallon casks of wine were placed in the street and everyone was invited to drink to the "death" of the Kaiser. A shop which closed for the afternoon displayed a mourning wreath with the sign: "The Kaiser is dead." One parade was led by a figure in chains representing the Kaiser.

The Chicago Opera Company was rehearsing when a Belgian tenor rushed in crying: "Stop, stop, peace has been declared." Director Campanini ordered the orchestra to play the "Star Spangled Banner," and the national anthems of the Allies. Rehearsal was adjourned and the singers joined in the street celebration.

At many points the police were forced to use their clubs to control the crowds and several persons were injured. Fearing that conditions might become worse after nightfall, police reserves were called into the downtown district.

Despite the denials which quickly followed the reports of peace, the demonstration continued in all sections of the city for several hours although rain, which began late in the afternoon, dispersed the crowds downtown, causing a series of traffic congestions on elevated and surface lines.

Disorders broke out in several sections of the city as a result of the premature peace celebration late this afternoon and several persons were injured when the police were forced to use their clubs in an effort to control the crowds. Police from outlying districts have been ordered into the loop and fire department squads have been called upon for assistance.

Chicago's demonstration of joy in the belief that victory and the final downfall of Kaiserism had been admitted by Germany's military leaders, was representative of that in other cities of the middle and central West.

War-time restraint was abandoned in St. Louis, Kansas City, Milwaukee, Minneapolis, Oklahoma City and many other cities. In Brainerd, Minn., the premature discharge of a cannon injured two boys, one seriously. In St. Louis many persons became so hysterical they were taken to hospitals.

Among the Chicago incidents was a gathering of postoffice clerks in the postmaster's office, where they sang anthems.

Six persons were injured, one possibly fatally, in motor car accidents in the Topeka (Kan.) demonstration.

Dallas, Tex., exhibited most restraint. The pre-arranged signal when peace finally should be signed was the blowing of a giant siren which started vigorously, but was stopped when the Associated Press did not confirm the armistice report. The people generally declined to believe the false report.

PITTSBURGH.

PITTSBURGH, Nov. 7.—Hundreds of factory whistles in Pittsburgh shrieked and church bells were rung this afternoon following publication of false reports that an armistice had been signed with Germany.

The stock exchange closed, and the City Council, which was in session, adjourned its meeting until receipt of Associated Press dispatches from Washington of Secretary Lansing's denials, after which the session was resumed.

ST. LOUIS.

ST. LOUIS, Nov. 7.—With a steady rain falling, St. Louis' downtown streets at noon today began filling with people as false news spread that the war was over.

The Associated Press did not carry the report. Girls' drum corps from big department stores headed parades, and from all windows in office buildings paper streamers were floating. Streets were carpeted with paper ribbon, while Allied flags were waved and fire departments exploded loud bombs. The demonstration grew, until at 3 o'clock there was a great din of noise and cheering sweeping the city.

DENVER.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

DENVER (Colo.) Nov. 7.—The false report of the signing of an armistice caused wholesale ringing of bells, blowing of whistles and the firing of bombs over the city today. Fire wagons left their stations and dashed through the streets clanging bells and blowing sirens. Because of the ban on assemblies, owing to the influenza epidemic, no parade was held and no organized celebration staged.

EVERETT.

EVERETT (Wash.) Nov. 7.—Mills and stores in this vicinity closed at noon today when the false report of the end of the world war was received and their employees paraded on Hewitt avenue. The noise exceeded any Fourth of July celebration ever held here. The din continued after the Associated Press, which had not carried the false report, announced the true facts from Washington official circles.

BOISE.

BOISE (Idaho) Nov. 7.—Boise had its little peace demonstration today, like hundreds of other cities, based on premature and inaccurate information. The celebration was Statewide. Small towns besieged the offices of the few daily newspapers with long-distance telephone calls seeking confirmation of the erroneous news. When it became known that the Associated Press carried denial the demonstration quickly quieted.

In Boise, banks and stores were closed, parades were started, flags flung to the wind and Gov. Alexander addressed a crowd of more than 5000 persons from the State House steps. At Pocatello the big railroad shops closed and thousands paraded. The State university of Moscow declared a holiday and faculty and students joined in a celebration.

MODESTO.

MODESTO, Nov. 7.—It is estimated that 2160 gallons of gasoline, valued at $453, was wasted in the celebration here today which followed a false report that an armistice had been signed by the Germans. Six hundred automobiles paraded a distance of thirty-six miles through the city streets, after an afternoon newspaper published the story, and used that amount of fuel.

ORANGES, the golden fruit of the Sunny Southland, are a vital part of the American's war-time diet—both because of their nutritive value and also that more concentrated foods may be released for army use. "Eat oranges for physical fitness during these war days," authorities urge, and augment their recommendation with the interesting statement that the Germans are fast losing their vital powers because their diet lacks live fruit juices.

Los Angeles is the distributing center for Southern California's immense orange crops. The yield for the year 1917-1918 produced a revenue of $58,277,600.

California orange-growers fully realize the value of co-operation, and 76 per cent. of the State's entire shipment of oranges during the past season was handled through the California Fruit Growers' Exchange, with a membership of 8500.

This bank, from its very inception, has effectively co-operated with the orange growers of Southern California, and many of the substantial fortunes which the industry has yielded to producers have helped to make "The Bank for Everybody" one of the Southland's foremost financial institutions.

WOMEN HELPLESS FROM HEADACHE NEED THIS TONIC

Faint, subject to dizzy spells, frequent headaches—this is the story of misery that thousands of women can tell. Happiness under such conditions is almost impossible, despondency is almost inevitable.

If your life is one continuous round of suffering without any particular illness being manifest you receive but little sympathy because no one but yourself understands your condition. Help may be suggested by this statement from Mrs. Joseph Vandegriff of West Grove, Pa. She says:

"I was in a greatly run-down condition and was so weak that I would faint away and have dizzy spells. I could hardly retain any food on my stomach and suffered constantly with headaches. I was treated by doctors for several months but without relief. It was through reading a newspaper that I decided to try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills and it wasn't long before my headaches left me and I was getting better. I kept gaining in strength until I was well."

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills build up the blood and have proved of the greatest benefit in many disorders due to undernourished nerves. A tendency to anemia, or bloodlessness, is also corrected by these tonic pills.

Two useful books, "Diseases of the Nervous System" and "What to Eat and How to Eat" will be sent free by the Dr. Williams Medicine Co., Schenectady, N. Y. Your own druggist sells Dr. Williams' Pink Pills or you can order them direct by mail, postpaid, at 50 cents per box, six boxes for $2.50.

WAR PROJECTS WILL CONTINUE.

Thirteen Outlays Totaling $18,000,000 to Proceed.

Several Thousand Engineer Officers Needed Yet.

Contracts for 851,000 Leather Jerkins is Let.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 7.—The War Department today authorized the construction division to proceed with thirteen war projects costing $18,000,000. The largest appropriation, one of $7,500,000, was made for enlargement of Camp Grant, Ill. Other appropriations for extensions included Camp Custer, Mich., $4,815,000; Camp Dodge, Iowa, $2,835,210; Delaware Ordnance Depot, $1,203,185, and Aerial Gunnery School, Miami, Fla., $660,000.

The War Department today announced that several thousand men experienced in administration, production and engineering are needed as officers to fill vacancies in various staff corps of the army. Application should be made to local branches of the Military Training Camps Association.

CONTRACTS AWARDED.

Contracts for 851,000 leather jerkins, to cost $8,703,400, were awarded to twenty-three manufacturers by the War Department. Deliveries will be made from December to February, and will complete the requirements of the army until March 1, 1919.

George Creel, chairman of the Committee on Public Information, announced today that "domestic activities" of the committee will be discontinued as soon as the war ends, but that the work in foreign countries will be continued, for a time at least.

The foreign work, which is under control of the President, and is financed out of his special war fund, Mr. Creel said, "has had a wider purpose than the facts of the war," being designed "to introduce America to the world."

TO CURTAIL EXPENSES.

Senator Martin of Virginia, Democratic leader in the Senate, said today Congress will call on the executive departments of the government to curtail war expenses immediately on the signing of an armistice by Germany. He also said that the War Department will be asked to stop calling men into the military service as soon as the war ends.

Senator Martin declared appropriations for war purposes in the last two years aggregated $57,000,000,000 and that he is deeply concerned over the effect the expenditures are having on the country.

Leaders of both parties share his views, he said, and added the President would have something to say in the Senate on necessity for curtailing expenses after the armistice is signed.

"STUFFER" WOUNDED.

Sergt. McFadden, Formerly with "The Times," is Hit First Time He Goes Over the Top.

Sergt. Wallace McFadden, who used to "stuff" papers for The Times, was wounded in action on September 26, while he was engaged in knocking the stuffing out of the Huns, it was learned yesterday.

The wound was in his shoulder, and a piece of shell was removed at the Base Hospital. He was able to walk around when he wrote to his mother, Mrs. Harry McFadden of No. 3059 Guirado street, on October 1.

Sergt. McFadden is a member of Company A, Three Hundred and Sixty-fourth Infantry, and although he has been overseas since July this was his first time over the top.

A brother, private George McFadden, who has been in the service five months, is now stationed as a clerk at local draft board No. 16. Another brother expects to leave soon to join the Marines. Sergt. McFadden is 23 years old, and formerly worked for the Bukin Speer Motor Company.

War Claim Board Named.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 7.—Creation of a board of contract adjustment to pass upon all claims, doubts and disputes which may arise during the fulfillment of any contract made by the War Department was announced today by Secretary Baker. Lieut.-Col. Christopher B. Garnett has been appointed chairman of the board.

LOOK AT CHILD'S TONGUE IF SICK CROSS, FEVERISH

When constipated or bilious give "California Syrup of Figs."

Look at the tongue, mother! If coated, it is a sure sign that your little one's stomach, liver and bowels need a gentle, thorough cleansing at once.

When peevish, cross, listless, pale, doesn't sleep, doesn't eat or act naturally, or is feverish, stomach sour, breath bad, has stomach-ache, sore throat, diarrhoea, full of cold, give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs," and in a few hours all the foul, constipated waste, undigested food and sour bile gently moves out of its little bowels, without griping, and you have a well, playful child again.

You needn't coax sick children to take this harmless "fruit laxative;" they love its delicious taste, and it always makes them feel splendid.

Ask your druggist for a bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly on the bottle. Beware of counterfeits sold here. To be sure you get the genuine, ask to see that it is made by "California Fig Syrup Company." Refuse any other kind with contempt.

British Expert Says German Army Can Fight On.

Divisions Melting Away Forecasts Ultimate End.

Believes War's Culmination will Start in Berlin.

BY MAJ.-GEN. SIR FREDERICK MAURICE.

[ATLANTIC CABLE—EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

[Copyright.]

LONDON, Nov. 6.—Now that all of Germany's allies have surrendered the task of the commentator who has now only a single front to deal with is much simplified.

As to that remaining front, I can only repeat what I have been saying for some time past, that the German armies in the field are not yet completely beaten, that there is as yet no sign of a dramatic military collapse of our enemy, and that if the German people are foolish enough to wish to continue the struggle, they can do so for some time.

Yet the end is certain, because of the steady decline in the enemy's fighting strength and the equally steady growth of the forces under Foch's command.

By the middle of last August, that is, after their defeats in the second battle of the Marne and in the battle of the Montdidier salient, the Germans had begun a process of living or their man power capital.

Shortly after Sir Douglas Haig's victory of August 8, six German divisions had disappeared forever and an Austrian division had taken its place in the front line.

By the middle of September, nineteen German divisions had been broken up, and six Austrian divisions had appeared in France.

Now twenty-five German divisions have gone into the melting pot and the six Austrian divisions must return home. So the process continues and must continue.

On our side, in July four American divisions began their famous advance with the army of Gen. Descouttes, from the Marne at Chateau Thierry to the Vesle. By the middle of September Gen. Pershing, with the First American Army, had won the victory of St. Mihiel, while by the middle of October the Second American Army was in line. At the same time an American corps appeared in the field with our Fourth Army, and has shared in the honors of its victorious advance.

We may expect before long to hear of the formation of the Third American Army; and as we know 250,000 Americans are coming across every month, we may be sure the expansion of the American army will continue until the war ends.

NO DOUBT OF END.

Therefore, there is no doubt whatever as to the end, and the only question is how soon we can convince the German people of the truth of that patent fact. But I would repeat, that we neither do justice to the troops who are winning our victories nor help our cause when after each success won we speak of the breakdown of the enemy's resistance and the near approach of a glorified Sedan in which the German armies will be forced to lay down their arms en masse.

Yesterday morning's communiques report the capture of 18,000 prisoners and 315 guns as a result of the Franco-British victories between the Scheldt and Oise and the Franco-American victories in the Argonne.

The infliction of these losses on the enemy means more toward the final result even than the ground won, important as that is.

The First American Army and Gen. Gouraud's army, which has been fighting doggedly ever since September 26, in some of the most difficult country on the whole front and against determined resistance on the part of the enemy, have reaped their reward, and having worn the enemy out, they have sprung forward some miles toward the Hirson-Mezieres railway from which they are now only some sixteen miles distant.

This is a great achievement, which will have important results; for the enemy's main lateral line of communication is severed and his power of transferring troops is greatly hampered. But it need not be disastrous to him, for he has some twenty-five miles farther back the Luxemburg-Arlon-Namur line, which, while not so good as that which he has lost, is still serviceable.

In the north, the French First Army and our own Fourth, Third and First Armies have gained another notable victory in crossing the Sambre Canal, which is a very serious obstacle, being some 200 feet wide and navigable by sea-going barges, and in gaining possession of about half of the great Mormal Forest and capturing the picturesque little town of Le Quesnoy.

FINAL COLLAPSE NEARS.

The general effect of these two victories has been to make the enemy's position in his center between the Aisne and the Oise more precarious, to weaken his hold on the Scheldt and force him to attempt yet another readjustment of his front. In fact, he has already begun the withdrawal for which he has doubtless been preparing for some time.

The continued retreats and the removal of the Austrian divisions must affect the morale of the German troops and bring the final collapse nearer.

But I am still of the opinion that if collapse comes soon it will begin in Germany, rather than at the front. I do not think that, looked at from a military point of view only, the situation warrants greater expectations than that the enemy has been fighting hard and that if he is showing weak spots he still has plenty of strong ones.

The weather is uncertain; or rather, it is becoming more and more certain that it will be bad, for the labor of repairing roads and the railways damaged by the enemy is immense and the difficulties in the way of rapid exploitation of our success are considerable.

Papers Declare Compensation and Freedom of Seas Terms Vital.

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

LONDON, Nov. 7. — The evening newspapers are unanimous in expressing their satisfaction that the President has associated America with the Allies in demanding from Germany compensation for damage done to civilians and their property.

They are also pleased that it has been made quite plain that the Allies will be unfettered in their discussion at the peace conference on the freedom of the seas, and will be able to take such a stand as their national interests require.

MURGUIA IN REVOLT AGAINST CARRANZA.

MEXICAN GENERAD ON RAMPAGE, EXECUTES ACTING CHIHUAHUA GOVERNOR.

JUAREZ (Mex.) Nov. 7.—Chihuahua State is again excited over developments which have been taking place in Chihuahua City since last Friday. Messengers arriving tonight said Gen. Francisco Murguia openly defied the authority of the Federal government, deposed the Governor, threw the Acting Governor in jail and ordered him executed after his loyalty to the central government had been questioned.

A telegram, sent to President Carranza, Friday, questioning Murguia's loyalty, was relayed to Murguia at Chihuahua City. He started an investigation which ended at the office of the Secretary of State, Ramon Gomez Salaz, late Friday, when Gomez Salaz was beaten with a saber until unconscious.

The Secretary of State was ordered placed in the penitentiary awaiting execution on a charge of treason. He later was pardoned by Gen. Murguia and liberated Monday.

In the meantime Gov. Ignacio Enriquez, learning of Murguia's actions, officially sealed the State Palace and left with his personal staff for the mountains, abandoning the State government to the military.

STAGE OVERTURNS, THREE WOMEN HURT.

LOS ANGELES PASSENGERS ARE INJURED IN AUTO BUS ACCIDENT AT MOUND.

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

VENTURA, Nov. 7.—Three Los Angeles women were hurt and seven people escaped injury when a Pickwick stage overturned and came within an ace of tumbling down a fifteen-foot embankment in Mound this morning. The injured women are:

Mrs. Eva Thomas, No. 229 West Thirty-first street; Mrs. Leslie of No. 10 Chester place, and Millicent Marlowe, No. 956 Hudson street.

Mrs. Thomas was seriously cut by glass. All the injuries sustained were from the glass of the windshield. The women were able to be taken on to Los Angeles.

Driver J. Cheeseboro of Los Angeles was attempting to go around a motorcycle ridden by David Cordero. Cordero started to turn in to Knox Bros' place, and then turned in the other direction. The stage driver had followed Cordero to the other side of the road, and when Cordero started back again the stage driver was forced to turn sharply into Knox road to avoid striking Cordero.

Instead of going into the road his car skidded and overturned, and was literally hanging on the edge of a fifteen-foot drop when it came to a halt. The injured women were taken into the Knox home and given first aid, after which a physician was summoned.

The Los Angeles City Directory gives the name of Ada Leslie, a maid, living at No. 10 Chester place. She could not be located at that address last night. Neither the city directory nor the telephone directory give the names of Mrs. Eva Thomas, said to live at No. 229 West Thirty-first street, nor of Millicent Marlowe, of No. 956 Hudson street.

SHIP TONS LOST NOW 8,946,000.

LONDON (via Montreal) Nov. 7.—In the House of Commons, T. J. MacNamara, Parliamentary Secretary to the Admiralty, announced that 8,946,008 tons of British merchant shipping had been lost during the war up to September 30 last by enemy action. Of this number, 5,448,000 tons had been replaced by new construction and by the purchase of ships abroad and the utilization of captured enemy ships.

SHIP WORKERS HELP TO WIN, SAYS HURLEY

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 7.—Peace with victory, which now seems near, could not have been made possible without the patriotic efforts of the workers at home, said Chairman Hurley of the Shipping Board tonight at an entertainment and reception here given by Director-General Schwab for employees of the Emergency Fleet Corporation.

"Every one of you has played his or her part in driving the German army out of France and Belgium, Mr. Hurley said. "The nights you spent at your desks, after office hours, helped to put American soldiers over the top into German trenches. Your efficient service made possible the American shipbuilding programme that won the race against German submarines.

"Last month American shipyards completed and delivered 415,908 dead-weight tons of shipping. It was the finest shipbuilding achievement the world has ever known. It was the climax of your hard work, and I would like to say that stenographers, clerks and even office boys, who did what was assigned to them, as well as it could be done, deserve as much credit as the men at the top."

Referring to Director-General Schwab, Chairman Hurley said:

"He has won your hearts as he has won ours in Washington, but while you may all think you knew him well and that you will always remember him, I veture to say that Hindenburg will remember him longer than any of you."

AUSTRIAN ARMY IS HUNGRY MOB.

Officerless Troops Marching None Knows Where.

Indifferent to War or Peace, They Seek Only Food.

Collapse of Mighty Force is Pitiful Spectacle.

[BY ATLANTIC CABLE AND A. P.]

ROME, Nov. 7.—King Victor Emmanuel has promoted Gen. Armando Diaz to the full rank of general, and Vice-Admiral Paolo Thaon di Revel, former chief of the naval staff of Italy, to the rank of admiral.

ITALIAN HEADQUARTERS IN VENETIA, Wednesday, Nov. 6.—(By the Associated Press.) The Hungarian port of Fiume, southeast of Trieste, has been taken over by the Italians and Admiral Cagni has been named Governor.

The occupation of Fiume was similar to the Italian entrance into Trieste. A citizens' committee was formed at Fiume last October 29. The committee signed a declaration of rights and declared themselves free from Hungary, expressing a desire to be united with Italy.

WITH THE ITALIAN ARMY AT TRENT, Wednesday, Nov. 6.—(By the Association Press.) Amid the rejoicings of this redeemed city scenes of destruction and starvation are common as one passes over the roads over which the Italian troops are trying to pass the thousands of Austrian prisoners who were cut off by the Italians southwest of Belzano. Every road leading up to this city is crowded with men and on every hand there are evidences of the collapse of one of Europe's mightiest armies.

Great masses of men wait for long hours to move a few feet or a few hundred yards, to halt anew on a road littered with carcasses of horses and with cannon, pieces of shields, pistols, rifles, broken down auto trucks and machine guns.

There is no swearing among these men. There are even moments of profound quiet broken by snatches of songs.

Many Austrians are dying from sheer fatigue and starvation and not wounds. The Italians are doing all they can to hurry up food supplies. This is difficult and in the meantime dead horses are eaten, the flesh being cooked at roadside fires.

Large bodies of Austrians are helpless. The correspondent passed between Rovereto and Trent, a distance of sixteen miles, an unending column of men marching, none knew whither.

They asked orders from an officer who was with the correspondent. When asked if they knew about the armistice they said: "We want food. Food is the only thing we are interested in. We are indifferent to war and peace and death—everything but food."

It is estimated that nine Austrian divisions were taken with their staffs. Thirty-nine divisions were partly disorganized and fifteen, although in bad condition, are retreating from the advancing Italians. These troops, while equipped for their retreat, are without orders and go traveling here and there like droves of sheep. It is common thing to see an entire brigade without officers, the latter having been ordered to go separately to the concentration camps.

The correspondent saw at Pergine the general of the Sixth Austrian Division motoring along in his own car. He said he was going home, having been given special permission. In the meantime his troops had been abandoned.

Returning to the lower levels of the mountains by way of the Asiago plateau, the correspondent saw further evidence of the devastation of war. There is not a house left standing in the town of Asiago. There also is much suffering among the people throughout the mountains, who are foodless and have been robbed of their possessions. By a miracle the rigorous Alpine winter has not yet set in, and these people say: "These ravages are necessary. They remain glorious memories of our salvation."

The problem of feeding the multitude of prisoners is grave, but the Italians are making a superhuman effort. They also are treating the prisoners as well as possible. It is common to see hardy Italian troops generously toss their own bread rations to the Austrians, saying laughingly: "Tomorrow is another day. We will eat then."

"HE-MEN" WIN ON DIAMOND

In a letter to Bernal Dyas of the B. H. Dyas Co., Capt. Al G. Waddell of the One Hundred Forty-third Field Artillery American Expeditionary Forces in France, writes as follows:

"My dear Mr. Dyas:

"Out of the worst sand lot you ever saw, the men of the outfit had a ball game and a lot of new equipment was used which had the B.H.D. sign all over it. The diamond was laid out in a cleared space where trees had once been and in their hurry to get ready for the game they had not taken out all of the stumps, but the diamond was fairly well cleared and pretty fast notwithstanding a lot of ruts.

"This outfit hadn't been in France a week until the boys were framing up ball clubs and putting on shows for the Frenchmen. Every bit of spare time they get they are playing ball. The men are kept pretty busy and the ball players don't get out of any work to play, so they have the same line-up seldom twice in succession, but they enjoy the game and are putting the athletic equipment to good advantage.

KEPT EQUIPMENT.

"When we left the States I had all the athletic goods owned within the regiment packed with the equipment of my own battery, so it came through O.K. You should see these men play ball after working all day. They have all the pep in the world and are trimming all competitors over here. We are too far away to get into any of the games of the Paris League, but have a pretty fast league of our own.

"I hardly think we will have any football this fall although I have all the equipment left from last year and it is all in good condition. We can't spare the time to train for the game.

"Fred Thomson came out all O.K. and is still with the outfit. He is the most popular "sky pilot" in these parts. His brother, "Pelican" Thomson, formerly of Occidental, competed for a French athletic club in the French track and field championship a short time ago, and, with the aid of a young lieutenant of aviation named Gilchrist of some southern college, won the meet. Young Thomson took six firsts and two seconds. The seconds were in the sprints, which were won by Gilchrist. Thomson won the high hurdles in 16.6 and the broad jump at 21.3, the high jump at 6.2, the low hurdles in 24.2, the shot at 44.5½, and the big surprise was the grenade throw. He had not trained and had never tried throwing the hand grenade. The French champion threw it out 55 ft. 8 in., and Thomson went out and threw it 85 ft. 7 in. The judges looked it over and weighed it and still thought it phoney. Then Thomson picked up another and tossed it two inches farther than his first try. He was presented with a huge medal by the War Minister of France which proclaimed him the French champion. The Frenchmen are still trying to figure out his system for throwing the grenade.

MEETS 'EM ALL.

"It's funny how many meet one meets over here. I passed little Bertling Chico, formerly of Sunny California, the other day. I met Foster H. Rockwell, formerly of Yale and one time All-American quarterback, in uniform. Capt. Otto Sandmeir, former catcher on the California nine, showed up here yesterday.

"I would like to have the time to write a real letter but it can't be done. The men are all in fine health and on their toes all the time. The Los Angeles boys are doing exceptionally well physically and morally. Judging from their actions they are not suffering mentally either. Well fed, well clothed and even supplied with American Bull Durham, the soldier has little to wish for."

HUNTING AND FISHING NEWS.

Surf fishing all along the coast, near Manhattan, Hermosa, etc., has been especially good the past week, according to Roy Terry. The ideal time for this kind of fishing is just at dusk, as the fish are running best then and there is no trouble in getting them to bite.

Mr. and Mrs. Bernal Dyas, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Gates, and Mr. and Mrs. Case, leave today for a three-day trip to Big Bear Lake. The party will spend their time hunting and fishing, and ought to have all kinds of success, as the weather is snappy up there and the ducks are flying in great shape.

Dr. E. C. Blackwell and Paul Wolf are off for a little shoot on one of the local hunting grounds.

Monroe Salisbury and his party went out after big fish at Redondo last night. Reports have been coming in from that direction that a school of yellowtail has been seen by fishing parties some distance out from the shore.

Returning fishermen say trolling off Long Beach and Redondo is providing some fine sport these days.

WILLIE MEEHAN IS TRAINING IN NORTH.

Willie Meehan of the Naval Reserves is in Oakland to train for his coming bout with Fred Fulton. Fulton and Meehan are scheduled to put on a match in San Francisco for the benefit of the United War Work campaign.

SOCCER TEAM TOUR.

A second tour of Scandinavian countries by a representative soccer team of players selected in the United States is contemplated after the war is won. The team may also visit Holland, Spain and Portugal and is likely to compete in France.

SAILOR TEAMS TO PLAY IN DECEMBER.

After much dickering with the Sub Base, Lieut. P. E. Sidler, athletic officer of the Naval Reserves at San Pedro, has finally succeeded in getting the two football teams signed up to play December 14 at Washington Park. The date considered at first was Christmas, but both teams rather hope to get the New Year's game with the Marines, and don't want to take a chance at any of their men getting knocked out beforehand.

Ted Brandon and Andy Parovich both received fourteen votes in the recent election for this season's football captain. The election will be held over again, when there will be an odd man to decide the vote.

Results of National Truck Efficiency Test Announced by Packard Company

1760 Packard Trucks Show How to Attain Efficiency Urged by Council of National Defense and War Industries Board

FOR four years now, War conditions have forced the industrial man to think about his transportation largely in terms of the motor truck. Out of his experience two underlying questions have been brought sharply to the attention of every truck user:

What ought I to expect my truck to do for me?
What ought this service to cost me?

All lines of business are vitally interested today in making every motor truck move more freight, thereby relieving the burden on the railroads.

Every business realizes the necessity for an accurate and complete cost system, and a standardized method of accounting, which will serve as a permanent record of operation and maintenance.

In fullest co-operation with the efforts of the National Council of Defense and the War Industries Board to save freight cars for urgent Government service—the Packard Motor Car Company announced on June 1st last the opening of the National Truck Efficiency Test.

This National Test was planned to do three things:

To interest all truck owners and drivers in the campaign of the National Council of Defense and the War Industries Board for higher efficiency of motor truck transportation and the use of motor transportation wherever possible to relieve the congestion of the railroads.

To demonstrate on the road the practical methods to attain higher efficiency in motor truck transportation.

To show how costs of motor operation may be found exactly, and the advantages of recording these costs regularly and in detail on the standardized forms of the National Standard Truck Cost System, as perfected by the Truck Owners' Conference.

Prizes amounting to $5025.00 in cash were announced to be awarded to owners and drivers of Packard Trucks who established efficiency records—on the items of outgoing and return loads; the state of the roads; time required to cover the route; low cost per ton-mile in gasoline, in tires, in oil; in maintenance cost, and the condition of the truck at the end of the test.

Seventeen hundred and sixty Packard Trucks carried out the conditions of the test and turned in their detailed records, on forms of the National Standard Truck Cost System—the one system which keeps an exact, impartial and comprehensive record of any truck, irrespective of size, make, or the class of hauling the vehicle is doing.

It was impossible, of course, for every entrant to win a prize in cash. But every owner and driver did get an insight into the higher service he might expect from his truck, when operated on the principles explained to him by the Technical Service Department of his local Packard Branch or Packard Dealer.

It is the function of the Technical Service Department to see that every available means of motor transportation shall be kept running at highest efficiency.

In a very real sense this test is a nation-wide extension of the Packard Policy of 100% War Work.

And the truck owners and truck drivers who carried through this test knew that they were thereby rendering the fullest co-operation with the Government.

THE PRIZE WINNERS AND JUDGES IN THE NATIONAL TRUCK EFFICIENCY TEST

FIRST: What Cheer Chemical Co., Pawtucket, R. I., James L. Drury, Driver.

The judges who made the awards were three well known experts on Motor Transportation: H. P. Gould, editor of 100%; H. W. Slauson, M. E., motor editor, of Leslie's; and Waldemar Kaempffert, editor of Popular Science. The records of the test were identified by number and at the time of making the awards the judges did not know the names of the winners.

Practically every line of business employing motor trucks, from a single truck to the "fleet," competed throughout the three months of the National Truck Efficiency Test.

The National Truck Efficiency Test, for the first time, gave an incentive to the driver to keep records — to keep his truck in the best operating condition.

It is true that, in most cases, the owner selects the truck of his choice. But it is the driver to whom the care, operation costs, upkeep and efficiency of the truck are entrusted.

One of the most valuable results of the test was the close co-operation rendered by the Technical Service Department of the local Packard Branches and Dealers with the individual truck driver—distributing information on better operating methods, greater efficiency, lower upkeep and running costs.

OTTAWA (Ont.) Nov. 6.—Today's Canadian casualty list contains the names of H. Armstrong, San Francisco, died of wounds; W. E. Jackson, Sawtelle, Cal., ill, and K. W. Dean, Tonopah, Nev., wounded.

[Readers interested in the complete casualty list, as furnished daily by the War Department, may have access to the names by visiting The Times office, editorial rooms, third floor, Times Building, First and Broadway.]

BRITAIN'S WEEKLY CASUALTIES 27,648.

[BY ATLANTIC CABLE AND A. P.]

LONDON, Nov. 7.—British casualties reported for the week ending today total 27,648, divided as follows:

Killed or died of wounds, officers, 359; men, 6084; wounded or missing, officers, 922; men, 20,283.

SOUTHLAND MEN IN CASUALTIES.

Private Louis Wolpert, former assistant property man at the Morosco Theater, now with Co. A, One Hundred and Third Infantry in France, has been reported missing in action since September 28, according to a telegram received here by his grandmother, Mrs. Sarah R. Macneill of No. 1154 South Los Angeles street. On the same day a letter from him, dated September 17, arrived, and in that he said that he had just survived the big drive, seeing many of his comrades from Camp Kearny wounded and killed, and having close escapes himself. They went over the top after seven hours' barrage, and he says he "did some ducking when we ran into machine-gun fire." Wolpert, who is 23 years old, has been in France since June. His father lives in Providence, R. I., where a half-sister also lives. He lived in California three years.

VENTURA, Nov. 7.—Private Charles Burrows was killed while his regiment, the Three Hundred and Sixty-fourth, was charging the Huns before Metz, according to several letters received here today. Private Burrows, the son of Mrs. May Burrows, was one of the first seventeen men to enlist in Ventura county. He is the first man from the city of Ventura to be killed and the sixth from the county.

Sergt. George Carne, another of the first contingent, went over the top with "Charley." In a letter to his father, Edgar Carne, he indicates that Private Frank Davis of Santa Paula, killed in the same battle, had been overwhelmed by force of numbers, and rather than surrender, died.

POMONA, Nov. 7.—Word came today to Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Boyd of No. 575 South White avenue of the death of their 22-year-old son, Private Roscoe A. Boyd, who was killed in action on September 29. He is the first boy who actually enlisted from Pomona to be killed in action. Young Boyd left Pomona last June for Camp Lewis and from there he was transferred to Co. A of the Three Hundred and Sixty-second Infantry. The last letter received from him told of being slightly wounded and expressed the hope that he would soon be able to get at the Huns again. Another brother, Private Clifford Boyd, is also in the service in France. Only a few days ago Landon Boyd, a third brother, nearly lost his life when thrown to the bottom of an eighty-foot well.

This morning's casualty list names Private Clarence E. Berline, formerly interne at the Receiving Hospital, as died of disease. Private Berline enlisted in the aviation ground service two days after America declared war. His unit was under fire for several weeks, he told his wife, who lives at No 501 El Centro avenue, in a letter written four days before his death, which resulted from an attack of bronchial pneumonia. He was 28 years old.

Mrs. Margaret Kemp of No. 1810 Alexandria avenue, Hollywood, received a letter yesterday from her son, Corp. Walden L. Kemp, saying that he was wounded in action September 19. Pieces of an exploding shell passed through his ankle and heel, and his knapsack was riddled. He is now in a base hospital. Corp. Kemp was trained at Camp Lewis.

WHITTIER, Nov. 7.—Private Leonard Steere, wounded in France last month, writes to his mother, Mrs. S. M. Steere: "I have just come out of another big drive, but not so lucky this time. A big piece of shrapnel caught me in the leg and came out at my ankle. In the five months I have been here I have been in four big fights, but I think I can say that this one was the fiercest. Steere is a graduate of the Whittier High School.

TIMES' ECONOMY COOK BOOK.

In The Times' big cooking contest in 1917, hundreds of the best cooks in Southern California participated. Thousands of recipes were submitted. Judges worked and hard to select the best of these and this book is the result of their efforts. All recipes contained in this book are the tried and tested ones of patriotic housewives, who have endeavored to conserve the food resources of their country, and at the same time give their families the best meals possible. Every recipe submitted was tried by experts and those that were found wanting were eliminated, at once. Sold by Times' agents everywhere, 25 cents the copy, postage 5 cents extra. IRISH BISHOPS' BEST WISHES FOR GIBBONS.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

BALTIMORE, Nov. 7.—Cardinal Gibbons received a document signed by Cardinal Logue, primate of Ireland, and the other bishops and archbishops of Ireland, congratulating him on his fiftieth anniversary as a bishop. In part, it says:

"A delegation of the bishops of Ireland would gladly journey to Baltimore, but now duty constrains each Irish bishop to abide among his flock and render them, if occasion should require, all the aid he can, as Irish bishops have ever done in days of danger for their people.

"The jubilee tribute of esteem and affection which the cardinal primate, archbishops and bishops of Ireland, in meeting assembled for themselves, their clergy and people, tender to the cardinal archbishop of Baltimore is associated in our thoughts with gratitude to America for all it has done for the Irish race and to its President for his noble pronouncements on behalf of the freedom of nations small and great."

RETREATING GERMANS BECOME MORE SAVAGE.

SOLDIERS PILLAGE, BURN AND DESTROY PROPERTY OF BELGIAN CIVILIANS.

[BY ATLANTIC CABLE AND A. P.]

ON THE BATTLE FRONT IN BELGIUM, Tuesday, Nov. 5.—In their retreat through West Flanders the Germans were guilty of unnecessary cruelties and destruction, and these assumed a more savage aspect in the city of Ghent.

The town of Deynze, southwest of Ghent, suffered cruelties recalling the German atrocities of 1914. There was organized pillage by soldiers under command of officers, deliberate burning of houses and theft.

Bavarian troops under the command of Gen. Von Ostrowski were conspicuous in this work. The general himself, after being served a meal in a private house in Deynze, tore down the blinds and appropriated various souvenirs from the parlor.

German soldiers at one point during the retreat in Belgium carried off a stock of flour, lard and pork purchased by the Belgian Relief Commission and destined to feed the Belgian civilian population.

Sixteen noncommissioned officers entered a flour mill and ordered the German soldiers to load six box cars with flour valued at $100,000.

The relief commission's stores there were robbed of 45,000 pounds of lard and 18,000 pounds of pork.

GOVERNMENT PLAN TO RECRUIT FARM LABOR.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 7. — With the country facing a shortage of farm labor next year, due to the demands of the draft and the inroads made by war industries, the United States Employment Service announced today that plans are being formulated to extend the labor recruiting service to farm workers.

In each State an assistant to the Federal director will be named to have charge solely of farm labor.

FEAR MASSACRE BY BOLSHEVIKI.

Russian Ambassador Asks Aid to Avert Catastrophe.

Allied Troops are Urged to Oust Slav Reds.

Immediate Help to Prevent Calamity, is Plea.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 7.—The United States and Allied governments were asked by Boris Bakhmeteff, Russian Ambassador, to take all steps possible to prevent Bolsheviki executing their plan to observe next November 10, St. Bartholomew's Day, as an occasion for general massacre of the property owing and middle classes of Russia.

Official dispatches received recently, the Ambassador said, show extensive preparations by the Bolsheviki for the massacre. He urged the Bolsheviki under German agents be held to accountability before an international court if they carry out their plans.

Further and immediate aid from the Allied and American governments in ridding Russia of Bolsheviki control and re-establishing order is asked in an appeal addressed to President Wilson by the consolidated Russian provisional government at Omsk and delivered to Secretary Lansing today by Ambassador Bakhmeteff.

After describing the reign of terror inaugurated in Central Russia by the Bolsheviki and asserting that control by this element is made possible only through German influence, the appeal says aid already extended to Russia by the Allies will be in vain if "the new help arrives too late." It adds that every hour of delay "threatens with innumerable calamities, Russia, the Allies and other nations."

The provisional government expects the aid of the Allies and the United States and "considers itself in the right to demand insistently upon such help," says the appeal, which is signed by Nicholas Avksentieff, president of the provisional government, and Peter Vologodsky, Premier.

"It is evident that the exit of Russia from the number of belligerents and the process of dismemberment which it is suffering has a deep influence on the fate of all other countries," said a paraphrase of the appeal, made public at the Russian Embassy.

"It is to the head of the great American democracy, recognized apostle of peace, and fraternity of the nations we must appeal. All aid already extended to Russia by the Allies would be in vain if the new help should arrive too late or in insufficient quantity. Every hour of delay threatens with innumerable calamities Russia, the Allies and other nations.

UTILITIES MUST PAY THEIR OWN WAR TAX.

STATE COMMISSION REFUSES TO INCREASE RATES BASED ON HIGHER LEVY.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 7.—War income taxes assessed against corporations operating public utilities in California are not to be returned through increased rates, according to a decision of the State Railroad Commission here today in the application of the Western States Gas and Electric Company for an increase in rates in its Stockton district.

In presenting its application for an increased rate, the company included $78,331 in State, Federal and other taxes, which it advanced as an argument for an increase. The war taxes exceeded $14,000. In the decision (this amount was not allowed as a contention for an increase.

The decision authorized increases in rates sufficient to produce $72,652 additional revenue to the company. The new rates will apply on and after November 10.

HUN INDUSTRIALISM HELD WORLD MENACE

END OF GERMAN OWNERSHIP IN AMERICA IS URGED BY PALMER.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 7.—German industrialism is still a menace to world peace as is German military autocracy, A. Mitchell Palmer, alien property custodian, declared in an address here tonight. Speaking on the work of his office in taking over and Americanizing enemy owned property.

The business built up by Germans in the United States must forever lost to them, Mr. Palmer said. He added that "of course would be compatible with the safety of American institutions for German autocracy to exist, as is apparent in its economic organization of the world as in the fundamental and military doctrines of Central Europe."

Mr. Palmer, who spoke at the University Extension Center in Philadelphia, said the alien property custodian's office now has assumed control of nearly half a billion dollars' worth of enemy controlled or owned properties.

All of the interests of German sons in American industrial and commercial business when of interest is large enough to eliminate or control the business, Palmer said, will now be sold at public auction to American citizens "whatever accounting is to be made when the war is over for the property taken, will be for the money value thereof and not for the thing itself."

"Germany must be made to understand," he concluded, "that she has failed in the industrial world as in the military. Industrial disarmament must come along with military disarmament. Autocracy in industry must fall with the fall of the Hohenzollern dynasty. The economic power which frees the world from the menace of the autocratic militarism of the German empire should free it from the menace of its autocratic industrialism as well."

HARD ON FORTY FAT 'UNS.

Majority of New Senate and Assembly Pledged to Retrenchment.

BY THE WATCHMAN.

When the Association for the Betterment of Public Service organized shortly before the primaries, its purpose was to elect members to the State Legislature who pledged themselves to a programme of strictest economy and retrenchment and to reduce the avoirdupois of the Forty Fat Commissions. It succeeded in electing a large majority for both the Senate and Assembly.

The entrance of this association into politics marked a new era in the political game. A large number of substantial business men got together at a luncheon and mapped out a plan which they believed would result in a return to the same conduct of State business. Now it remains to be seen whether the chosen representatives will be able to corral enough votes outside of Los Angeles county to make the whole scheme a success.

One of the most important fights in the Legislative scramble was in the Twenty-ninth Senatorial District. The association succeeded in getting Dwight Hart, a man of big caliber, to run, and he won against great odds. The impossible Frank Flint was badly defeated, and it is to be hoped that he is shelved for all time.

COLORED MAN ELECTED.

The election of Frederick M. Roberts, a colored man in the Seventy-fourth Assembly District, shows that voters used no little discrimination. Mr. Roberts is eminently qualified for the position. He is highly educated, and no doubt will serve with honor to himself and the district. He is the first colored man ever elected to the California Legislature. Those who would inject race prejudice into the fight placed Gayhart in the race, but he was badly defeated.

Labor unionites tried in vain to beat Henry E. Carter with Horn. In the Sixty-sixth District Easton won handily despite strong opposition from labor union sources. The unionite candidate was Kiesner, who even ran behind Dawson, a Democrat.

SIXTY PER CENT. VOTE.

At 8 o'clock last night the registrar's office had completed the count of returns from all but one precinct out of 1308 in the county. The total vote showed that about 60 per cent. of the voters went to the polls notwithstanding the influenza.

In the Ninth Congress District the total vote showed the defeat of Montaville Flowers, the Republican nominee, by less than 7000 votes.

The defeat of John J. Hamilton, Supervisor in the First District, was one of the surprises of the election. Prescott F. Cogswell beat the incumbent by nearly 2000 votes.

Frank E. Woodley, incumbent in the Third Supervisor district, maintained his lead over Gregory, winning in the final count by nearly 2000.

R. W. DROMGOLD IS DEAD.

R. W. Dromgold, formerly member of the City Council from the old Ninth Ward, and for many years engaged in the sign business in Los Angeles, died suddenly yesterday morning at 6 o'clock, at the home of his son, George C. Dromgold, No. 1 La Marida avenue, Hollywood. Death was caused by an attack of heart failure, from which he had suffered slight attack on the previous day.

The funeral services, which will be private, will be held at Evergreen Cemetery at 10:30 o'clock this morning. W. A. Spalding, a neighbor for many years, will pay tribute to the worth of Mr. Dromgold as a citizen and public official.

R. Dromgold, who was 63 years of age, was born at Shirleyburg, Pa., and his early years were spent with his father on his mother's farm. He attended school there for several years, and then went to Versailles, Mo., where he was engaged with his brother in the wagon-making business for two years, and from thence came to Los Angeles in 1883. He was married here in 1890 to Nellie M. Squire. The widow and one son, George C. Dromgold, survive.

Mr. Dromgold served in the City Council, as member from the Second Ward, from 1907 to 1910. He was largely instrumental in securing the erection of the Buena Vista bridge, which was christened by President Taft in 1905. He was also a member of the City Council when the preliminary examinations of the Owens River aqueduct project were made and the Council finally decided to undertake the great enterprise.

For many years he was engaged in the sign business in this city. He was a Thirty-second Degree Mason, member of the Eastgate Lodge, a member of the Fraternal Brotherhood and Elks. He was deeply interested in civic affairs and various philanthropies.

TRIED TO KILL CAPITALIST?

Athlete Sought by Police on Serious Charges.

Alleged Invention is Bait to Obtain Money.

Victim Hit on Head in Effort to Secure Diamond.

The police are searching for Norman Halley, 27 years old, on a charge of attempting to kill and rob Max Fisher, retired capitalist of No. 604 South Coronado street. Halley is known as an athlete and aviator of some ability.

According to the police, Halley attempted last Monday evening to rob Mr. Fisher after striking him on the head with a hatchet. The police believe the suspect's cupidity was aroused by the sight of a $1000 diamond stud which the man wore. The alleged assault was made public by the police last evening for the first time.

According to the officers, Mr. Fisher, who is 58 years old and has retired from active business, but still invests money in small enterprises, read in a morning paper last Friday an advertisement in which a man with money was invited to call at room No. 303 Brack-Shops.

Mr. Fisher went to that address and there found a man whose name he did not learn. From this man Mr. Fisher discovered that a chemist in this city had devised a new formula for scented oils to be used in manufacturing cheap perfumes.

NEEDED THOUSAND.

The first man Mr. Fisher met represented himself as the partner of the chemist, and stated that the two partners needed $1000 to go to Washington, D. C., to secure patents on the process. On Monday Mr. Fisher called again at the Brack-Shops, and there met the chemist in the person of Norman Halley. They had a conversation, and that evening Halley called at the expensively-furnished bachelor apartments of Mr. Fisher at No. 604 South Coronado street.

While the two were discussing the details of the trip to Washington and the matter of manufacturing perfumes, Halley remarked to the older man, "I miss something from your cravat. Where is that big diamond you wore this morning?" Mr. Fisher replied, he says, that he did not wear the stone always, as it was very valuable, but he carried it in a chamois bag in his inner pocket.

Soon afterwards, it is stated Halley asked to be shown through the apartments of Mr. Fisher, and the latter struck a match to find the light switch and illumine the rooms when he was struck a heavy blow from behind. The wound inflicted on Mr. Fisher's head would indicate that a hammer, lead pipe or similar instrument was used. Mr. Fisher fell to the floor, and as he fell, turned, seeing Halley put an implement similar to a small hatchet in his inside coat pocket.

Halley is said then to have leaped on his prostrate victim and tried to secure the diamond from his inner vest pocket. Mr. Fisher, although dazed, grappled with his assailant and called for help. His cries and the force with which he fought are said by Detectives Yarrow and Ziegler to have been sufficient to hold Halley away till he heard people running along the sidewalk. Then he fled and has not since been seen by the police.

Mr. Fisher is at his home, attend-

ANOTHER DEATH IS SEEN IN BRAY CASE.

KILLING IN CAFE SAID TO HAVE RESULTED FROM QUARREL OVER WOMAN.

A grand jury investigated into the death of Mrs. Edward J. Bray, also known as Bertha Wiswell, was begun yesterday. One of the main witnesses was Dr. T. W. Finch, who made out an influenza death certificate in the case. Bray, the husband, is held by the police on suspicion of having caused the woman's death.

A new angle which developed yesterday was the fact that most of the witnesses examined had intimate knowledge of the death of J. H. Matz, who was killed in an East Fifth street cafe during an altercation between himself and Chris Schultz some time ago. During the fight Matz was stabbed, and he died three days later. It is said that several witnesses testified yesterday that the trouble started over the attentions Schultz is said to have shown the Bray woman.

Bray and Schultz are said to have had a flat fight and Bray received a bad beating. He is then alleged to have enlisted the pugilistic services of Matz, who went to the East Fifth street cafe with the express purpose of "getting" Schultz. While Deputy District Attorney Clark, who is in charge of the investigation, refused to state that the charges against Schultz would be dismissed, yet he admitted that the evidence presented yesterday favored the belief that Schultz stabbed Matz in self-defense.

The witnesses yesterday included Mr. and Mrs. Fred L. Johnson, parents of the dead woman; Dr. Finch, Mrs. Mary Reid, Miss Ethel Kahl and Gladys Thomas, who were at the bedside when the woman died, and Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Holt, proprietors of the apartments where the death occurred. Autopsy Surgeon Wagner was not present, but his report was considered. The report sets out that death did not come from natural causes.

MAJ. FARWELL IS KILLED.

Maj. and Mrs. George W. Farwell
Of this city, he in army uniform, she in that of a Red Cross field worker in France.

Maj. George Wells Farwell, a Hollywood man who was a managing engineer for the Doheny Oil Company, and who went to France attached to the Three Hundred and Sixty-first Infantry, was killed in action on the field of Argonne October 2, his wife, with the Red Cross Medical Service in France, cables her Los Angeles business manager. Maj. Farwell is named on this morning's casualty list.

Maj. Farwell, a West Point graduate, came to Los Angeles fourteen years ago. He was well known for his engineering abilities although only a young man, (33 years old at his death) and had charge of the Huasteca Petroleum Company, a Doheny concern near Tampico, Mex., for several years. He was a captain in the California National Guards, and after war was declared went to Plattsburg as an instructor. He also spent several months in the same capacity at the Presidio, was commissioned major at Camp Lewis, and sent overseas.

His wife, Dr. Margaret W. Farwell, has been overseas since July, and has delivered a series of lectures in London on Red Cross subjects in addition to her work with the Red Cross Medical Service in France. The "Farwell Fund," for the support of which many small clubs in this city have been formed, is named after Dr. Farwell and goes for the maintenance of refugee dispensaries overseas.

Dr. Farwell was a surgeon practitioner with offices in the Marsh-Strong Building, and she had practiced here about five years. She and Maj. Farwell were married twelve years ago. They have no children. Dr. Farwell's mother is Mrs. Nellie Withey of No. 1432 Orange drive, Hollywood. Maj. Farwell is a son of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Farwell of Seattle, Wash. His father is an attorney there.

Maj. Farwell has a brother, Lieut. Raymond Farwell (navy) stationed at an Eastern port. Another brother, Guerdon Farwell, is in Alaska, and the third brother, Horace Farwell, is in the shoe business in Tacoma, Wash.

SWAT 'FLU MASK; ALSO HUTCHINSON.

Self-Constituted Regulator of City's Health Measures is Declared an Interested Faddist by Conferees; Scheme Indefinitely "Under Advisement."

Dr. Woods Hutchinson, self-constituted regulator of the city's health measures, and single-handed exponent of compulsory mask-wearing for the prevention of "flu," had rather a bad time yesterday when he appeared before a special conference committee in the Council chamber to discuss the celebrated germ with which he appears to be on intimate terms.

Instead of swatting the "flu," the special committee swatted Dr. Hutchinson, and at the end of an interesting two hours, President Farmer of the Council leaned back,

DR. WOODS HUTCHINSON SAID HE DOESN'T NEED TO WEAR A MASK

stroked his chin thoughtfully, and remarked, "All this talk about making the wearing of masks compulsory sounds to me like bunk."

Councilman Mallard moved that the matter be taken under advisement; Councilman Criswell seconded the motion; all the Councilmen voted in favor of doing so, and they said that they didn't know how long it would be necessary to deliberate over the matter.

Dr. Hutchinson made a somewhat lengthy opening address, in which he declared that nothing but the mask could stop the "flu." He submitted many figures and theories. In regard to serum, he said that one shot in the arm would prevent death from the "flu," two shots would prevent it running into pneumonia, and three would keep you from getting the disease at all. What four would do he did not state.

TAKES MASK OFF.

Exception was taken to the fact that Dr. Hutchinson removed his mask while talking. He said he did so because he had been made immune and could not scatter germs. When asked why he wore one at all he remarked that he did so simply to set a good example. When someone suggested that maybe Dr. Hutchinson had an ax to grind in urging Los Angeles to enforce masks an innocent but maskless bystander rose and testified to the good intentions of the doctor, saying he had known him from childhood and had known his parents. "I have the utmost confidence in his integrity," he said.

"Then why don't you wear a mask?" someone else inquired.

BRANDED FADDIST.

Dr. Granville MacGowan, former Health Commissioner here, led the onslaught by expressing the utmost confidence in the local health authorities. He branded Dr. Hutchinson as a faddist, and made the flat assertion that Los Angeles can handle the epidemic without any outside help.

Dr. George L. Cole, chairman of the influenza advisory board, said he didn't want to make a controversy out of it, because he and Dr. Hutchinson have long been good friends, but that he believed masks in general use were not advisable. In taking his seat he remarked:

"I'll not discuss the matter any further, for I do love to hear Hutchinson talk."

Dr. LeMoyne Wills said he had been through two "flu" epidemics and asserted that masks are of no consequence. He called Dr. Hutchinson a theorist, who is trying to use California cities for his experiments. Dr. Hutchinson arose to hand him a chart showing how he says masks have reduced the "flu" in San Francisco, but Dr. Wills waved him aside, saying: "I don't want to look at them. Statistics will prove anything that a statistician wants them to prove."

ORIGINAL ALARMIST.

When he had an opportunity to get a word in edgeways, Marshall Stimson hopped up and declared that Dr. Hutchinson had done more alarming than anyone else he knew of, and expressed the opinion that the doctor certainly had some personal interest in mask propaganda. Mr. Stimson offered in evidence a Hutchinson interview from the Examiner, which he said was about the most alarming story he'd seen on the "flu" here.

Speaking for the theater owners, Frank A. McDonald said that if anything remained closed, everything should be closed. He said he, and some of his associates, in watching crowds at stores and eating-houses, had seen a man sneeze in the soup at a certain cafeteria.

The Influenza Advisory Committee went on record as being willing to abide by any decision the Council might make, but frankly admitted it didn't want to be experimented upon by Hutchinson. Members of the Chamber of Commerce, Merchants' and Manufacturers' Association and Realty Board expressed their opinion that the local health authorities will be able to handle the situation without outside assistance.

With the exception of Dr. Hutchinson, the sentiment of those attending yesterday's conference was strongly against the masks and there seems little doubt that the matter will be "under advisement" indefinitely.

A COMPARISON.

Deaths from influenza in San Francisco last week were nearly twice as many as in Los Angeles, yet Dr. Hutchinson told the Council that San Francisco has "brought the disease under control" by a general wearing of masks.

Figures furnished by the State Board of Health for San Francisco and by the health department for Los Angeles—these latter being the same as the State Board supplies—knock the props from under Dr. Hutchinson's argument. They show that for the week ending Saturday, November 2, the deaths in Los Angeles were 376 and in San Francisco 668. The population of Los Angeles is 150,000 larger than that of San Francisco. In effect, therefore, the deaths in San Francisco were 100 per cent. more than in Los Angeles last week. And that despite the fact that the wearing of masks is compulsory in San Francisco.

The same ratio of deaths is shown this week. Sunday and Monday

there were eighty-three in Los Angeles as compared with 145 in San Francisco; Tuesday, fifty-one in Los Angeles, seventy-two in San Francisco; Wednesday Los Angeles reported forty-nine, San Francisco, fifty.

DAY'S REPORT.

The number of cases per day in Los Angeles this week has never reached the 1000 mark, while it did reach and pass the 1000 mark at least one day in each previous week since the disease became prevalent. Yesterday 820 cases of influenza and sixty cases of pneumonia and other complications were reported. It is said by the health department that at least 100 of these cases should have been reported at least a week or ten days ago. Along with the new cases each day come 100 or more reports which physicians have been too busy to send in. There were twenty-two deaths from influenza, sixteen from complications and four from pneumonia yesterday. The number of cases reported yesterday was ninety-one in excess of the day before, but according to averages the conditions are steadily improving.

CONFERENCE TODAY.

At 1 o'clock this afternoon a conference will be held at Normal Hill Center between the Physicians' Advisory Board to the health department, representatives of the department stores and of the street railways for the purpose of discussing plans to avoid, as much as possible, the congestion of shoppers in the downtown district and on the cars at the hours when people are returning from their work to their homes.

It is proposed to curtail the shopping hours from 10 to 4 o'clock, so

DENY 'SCIENTISTS' PETITION

The State Supreme Court, at San Francisco yesterday declined to issue a habeas corpus writ for the release of Harry P. Hitchcock, the Christian Scientist held in custody here, charged with violating the Los Angeles ordinance closing churches and other public places during the prevalence of influenza. A telegram to this effect was received by Mr. Hitchcock, who since 7 p.m. Wednesday had been in custody of Detective E. T. Barnes.

Shortly after receiving the telegram, Detective Barnes brought Mr. Hitchcock to police headquarters, where the scientist deposited $5 bail and was released for a hearing next Tuesday. The other four members of Ninth Church of Christ, Scientist, who form the basis for a court test of the law, will have a hearing at the same time.

Douglas L. Edmonds, first reader of Ninth Church, and one of the defendants, and Attorney Robert M. Clarke, went to San Francisco Wednesday night to file the petition. Their contention was that the ordinance is an unwarranted exercise of the police power of the city and is unconstitutional. A similar petition, filed there on Monday with the District Court of Appeal, was denied.

What the next step of the Christian Scientists may be will not be known until Attorney Clarke and First Reader Edmonds, who is also an attorney, return from San Francisco. A suggestion has been made that an injunction might be applied for in the Superior Court, which has not yet been called upon to rule on the case. An appeal to the United States Supreme Court has also been suggested.

A statement that the Ninth Church of Christ, Scientist, would make no further attempts to reopen for services until proper court action makes it legal, or the closing order is removed by the health authorities, was made in Police Judge Fredericson's court yesterday by Mrs. R. L. Craig, one of the four defendants, and a member of the board of directors of the Ninth Church. She declared there was no intention of holding services in violation of the health department's ruling, and that the entire interest is now centered around the higher court's action in the matter.

ANGELENO TWICE BANDIT VICTIM

Cattleman Arrives at El Paso After Second Capture.

Ransomed for Fortune Only to be Arrested Again.

Anonymous Letters Play Part in Mexican Adventures.

E. P. Fuller, Los Angeles cattleman, member of the firm of C. H. and O. B. Fuller, cattle raisers and dealers, with offices at No. 423 North Alameda street, has just rounded out his latest adventure as a prisoner in Mexico, according to a telegram that was received yesterday by his brothers here from El Paso. It states that he had arrived there from Villa Ahumada, where he had been arrested by Mexican Federal troops charged with aiding Villa followers to obtain the release of an El Paso mining man.

A little over a year ago, Mr. Fuller was kidnaped by a band of forty-nine Mexican outlaws while on a visit to the Fuller cattle ranch at San Domingo, near Chihuahua City. He was held in captivity for six days while the bandits conducted negotiations with the brothers here which resulted in his being ransomed for $10,000 by C. H. Fuller, who hastened from this city to Mexico with the money.

At intervals since then E. P. Fuller, when on business trips to Mexico, has received anonymous letters, presumably from members of the kidnaping band, saying they still were after him and would get another big ransome soon. Mr. Fuller paid no attention to the threats, however.

Just who were behind his most recent capture is not disclosed in the telegram received from him yesterday. According to an Associated Press dispatch from El Paso, however, he was arrested together with D. B. Smith, a Texan mining man, by Federal troops and taken under guard to Chihuahua city. There they were given the freedom of the place, but were ordered not to leave. The charge laid against them was that they had taken part with Villistas in trying to obtain the release of E. F. Knotts, an El Paso mining man, who was held by Epifanio Holguin. The charges were dismissed by Gen. Murguia. Knotts, it is stated, also has been released, but has not yet reached the border.

ON INVALID LIST.

United States District Judge Bledsoe is on the road to recovery from an attack of the influenza, and is able to sit up a part of each day. He may possibly be able to attend to some business in chambers the coming week, it was stated at the Federal Building yesterday. United States District Attorney O'Connor, who had recovered as he thought from an attack of the prevailing epidemic, was taken with a relapse and is bedfast.

WOMAN GETS TERM IN COUNTY JAIL.

PERJURY IN CONNECTION WITH LAND CASE LEADS TO SENTENCE BY JUDGE HERE.

Mrs. Helen M. Le Fontaine, who also operated in the local Land Office as Nellie Griffith, was yesterday sentenced to six months in the County Jail by United States District Judge Trippet for perjury in connection with an annual proof submitted in behalf of Mrs. Irene Guyer, involving a desert land entry in the vicinity of Wister, Imperial county.

It is said that the woman has located between fifteen and twenty entrymen in the neighborhood of Wister and Imperial, in the Imperial Valley, from whom she collected a fee of $1 an acre, and in number of instances took contracts to do the necessary work on the land, as provided by the general land laws. In many instances, it is said, the proofs submitted did not correspond to the work done, and she has time and again been threatened with prosecution.

Mrs. La Fontaine had a desert land entry near Wister, upon which proofs had been submitted, but after she was indicted by the Federal grand jury she relinquished all claim to this land.

It is estimated by Federal Land Office investigators that Mrs. La Fontaine, with her charges for location and work, that in many instances was never done, has rolled up about $5000 of "easy" money.

FINAL TALE OF THE ELECTION.

Keeley, the man of many colors, by a safe majority.

Superior Judge James C. Rives headed the list of incumbent judges, his total vote being nearly 15,000 more than that of his nearest competitor. Henry J. Stevens polled a big vote, but fell a little behind Judge Avery.

FOR NEW JUDGES.

While complete returns from the State are not at hand the indications are that Amendment No. 9, creating two Appellate courts, was adopted by the people and speculation is rife as to the probable appointees to these judgeships.

Yesterday Joe S. Crail, vice-chairman of the State Republican Central Committee, and field manager for Gov. Stephens in the south, was frequently mentioned as one of the prominent lawyers who will be given careful consideration when the appellate judges are named.

Mr. Crail is looked upon as a lawyer of no mean ability and his friends assert that he should have most anything the Governor has to dole out. Mr. Crail has worked diligently for the interests of the Governor for months and the gratifying result of the general election is due in large measure to his efforts.

In the event that Mr. Crail is an avowed candidate, he will have the loyal support of his side partner, Tom Hughes, the veteran manager who is as strong as horseradish for Joe. He looks upon Mr. Crail as his boy and says nothing is too good for him.

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

RIVERSIDE, Nov. 7.—The Chamber of Commerce is considering tonight what answer may be made to a request of the War Industries Board for information regarding fireproof buildings available here for the purposes of a reconstruction hospital for returned soldiers. It is presumed that the inquiry relates to plans for the teaching of useful trades to the men soon to be released for civilian duty.

DRAFT MEN TO DRILL TONIGHT.

Peace News will not Affect Local Boards.

Three Thousand to Entrain Here Next Week.

Prominent Angelenos will be in Contingent.

Regardless of any news concerning the war or prospective peace, men in class 1A under the jurisdiction of Los Angeles draft boards are expected to report to their boards at drill grounds for preliminary instruction tonight at 7:30 o'clock. The several drill grounds will be named by Col. Arthur Williams, director of instruction, and each location may be learned at his office, No. 430 H. W. Hellman Building.

The men, in assembling, will have to wear gauze anti-influenza masks. In some cases these masks will be furnished by the draft boards, but in most cases the men must provide masks themselves. Board No. 17 has arranged for 1000 masks to be used tonight and Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock when men in Class 1A of that board must report at Normal Hill Center for roll call. They must also report tonight at 7:30 o'clock at the same place.

ENTRAIN NEXT WEEK.

Entrainment of more than 3000 men next week for Kelly Field, San Antonio, Tex., and Camp Lewis, will begin next Wednesday, it was announced yesterday, although the exact time has not yet been set. The number go to the air service at Kelly Field.

Many prominent Los Angeles men will leave in the first contingent on Monday. Among them will be Arthur P. Story, owner of the Story Building, who will go as captain of his contingent to Kelly Field. While Mr. Story expected orders giving him authority to take up a special line of training, the order has not arrived and he will leave Wednesday unless the order comes before entrainment. He is a registrant of board No. 17.

J. B. Bosley, also a registrant of that board, will not be able to entrain with the first contingent, but not his fault. E. H. Bagby, a member of the board, received a letter yesterday from Mr. Bosley, who is at Cisco, Placer county, and who is recovering from a harrowing experience. He and thirty-two other men were lost for five hours in a snow storm in the mountains near Flysink Lake. Walter A. Gibson, Pico and Valencia street, and Monty Westlake of San Pedro were also in the party.

WAR FILM DRAMA.

Members of board No. 17 yesterday took part in a thrilling motion picture drama being produced by D. W. Griffith on request of the War Department. Chairman James T. Long was the principal actor and promptly ordered the "father" of a soldier from the place.

Sidney John Chaplin, brother of Charlie, has filed with the district exemption board a claim for deferred classification. He says that he is the manager of the Charlie Chaplin Film Company, an industrial enterprise, and that he is a British subject.

The latter claim, it was said, could not stand, as he is a British subject and thus is liable to the American draft regulations. He makes no dependency claim, although he was married last February.

that the shoppers may be out of the way before the office buildings and stores begin to pour out their hundreds of employees.

United States District Judge Trippet yesterday authorized Charles N. Williams, clerk of the court, to ascertain the attitude of the health authorities on the question of the resumption of jury trials.

As jury trials are being held in the Superior Court of the city, it is regarded as possible that the Federal courts may be advised that they may proceed with jury trials, provided spectators are not allowed in the courtroom.

On account of the elimination of jury trials in the Federal court the calendar has become considerably confused, while there are several important war cases scheduled for trial in the next two weeks.

INFLUENZA EPIDEMIC DECREASES SOMEWHAT

TOTAL OF THREE THOUSAND NEW CASES ARE REPORTED IN CALIFORNIA.

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

SACRAMENTO, Nov. 7.—The State Board of Health reports 2158 new cases of Spanish influenza reported here today from various sections of the State. The mails brought in 1288 delayed reported making the day's total 3446. A message from Fort Rosecrans, San Diego, stated that Elmer J. Vossler, entomological explorer for the State Commission of Horticulture, had died there following an attack of influenza. He was 27 years of age and had returned recently from the Antipodes, where he assembled a valuable collection of insects for the State.

Deaths reported in the State were: San Francisco, 71; Oakland, 33; Sacramento, 18.

INCREASE IN BAY CITY.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 7.—An increase in the number of new influenza cases and in the number of deaths was reported by the Board of Health for the twenty-four-hour period ending at 5 p.m. Seventy-three new cases developed today against fifty yesterday, and there were forty-eight deaths today against fifty yesterday.

Today 381 cases were reported against 298 yesterday. Three hundred and eight cases reported today by letter and telephone developed previously, according to the Health Office statement.

The grand total of cases reported up to 5 o'clock tonight was 22,546, and of deaths 1571.

LESS AT SAN DIEGO.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

SAN DIEGO, Nov. 7.—Only twenty-four new cases of Spanish influenza are noted in the report made today for the twenty-four-hour period ending at midnight last night. There has been only one death due to the disease in the city in the last thirty-six hours.

RIVERSIDE LIFTS BAN.

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

RIVERSIDE, Nov. 7.—The Board of Health this afternoon announced that the ban will be lifted Friday at midnight, and that thereafter the schools, churches and theaters may be opened, inasmuch as the serious crisis in the influenza epidemic is over, in the opinion of the board.

EPIDEMIC IN NOME.

NOME (Alaska) Nov. 7.—Nome has been stricken with influenza. About 300 white residents today were reported suffering with the disease, and Eskimos in near-by villages were said to be dying by scores. The weather has been below zero for several days.

A number of white residents have died from the influenza, among them Walter Shields. Nome superintendent of the United States government Bureau of Education.

Many Eskimos were found frozen to death when their cabins were broken into by relief workers. Seventy soldiers at Fort Davis, near here, were taken ill.

Holy Cross Hospital, which had been closed, has been reopened to handle the influenza cases. The hospital is located at Holy Cross, a Yukon River point. All private hospitals are crowded.

SEATTLE, Nov. 7.—(By the Associated Press.) Not more than 500 white people are wintering in ice-bound Nome this year, Alaskans said here today. They wondered how the influenza reached Nome, for when the last boat arrived from the States the mails were fumigated and the passengers were kept in quarantine several days to prevent the influenza from entering the town.

HEIRESS SUES FOR SUPPORT.

Land Owner's Widow Brings Action Against Sons.

Trust Fund Agreement with Defendants Alleged.

Asks that Court Award Her Hundred a Month.

Mrs. Imogene Coleman, 57 years old, widow of Benjamin F. Coleman, extensive owner of property in California, Tennessee, Washington and Oregon, filed suit yesterday against her sons, Leon Coleman and Dr. Barney Ellerton Coleman, for support. She asks the court to award her $100 a month.

She alleges that after the death of her husband, she was induced to enter into a trust agreement with the defendants and another son, Heber Coleman, under the terms of which she was to be provided for. Under this agreement the property is conveyed and the title invested in the Union Trust and Savings Bank of Pasadena. It was the desire of the heirs that the trust should be for the use and benefit of Mrs. Coleman.

She says that she has received only 111.95 since January last from the trust funds, although she was to receive under the agreement the net income during life and a life interest in the property in Pasadena.

Dr. B. E. Coleman, with offices in the Los Angeles Investment Building, is in receipt of an income of $500 a month, the complaint alleges. Leon Coleman, she says, on information and belief, has set aside $3000 "for the purpose of preventing the said plaintiff from setting aside or dissolving the trust agreement." He receives a salary of $150 a month, it is alleged. Heber Coleman is in poor health and unable to earn more than sufficient for his own support, hospital and doctor's bills.

Dr. Barney Ellington Coleman, who resides at No. 2412 West boulevard, last night stated that he has been ill for some days and was unaware that any legal action had been taken by his mother against himself or his brother, Leon, who, he stated, had just returned from the East. "I do not care to make any statement regarding the matter," said Dr. Coleman, "until I have seen the complaint."

Leon Coleman could not be reached last night. Heber Coleman lives with his mother in Pasadena.

Santa Monica Infantryman Writes of Effect of German Barrage.

When a German counter-barrage hit his company during a charge in Flanders early in October, Lieut. C. W. T. Overton was the only commissioned officer to escape with his life. His aunt, Mrs. W. S. Maxwell of No. 828 Fourth street, Santa Monica, received a letter yesterday from Lieut. Overton, who is in the One Hundred and Seventeenth Infantry, giving brief details.

"Yesterday our regiment went over," he wrote. I got hurt. Wounded in the hand and head. The steel hat saved my life. Our regiment has suffered heavy casualties. My company has no commissioned officers left. 'It was hit in a German counter-barrage. When I got hit I was the last officer in my company and went through with another company that had some of its officers killed. I am not severely wounded and will not have to go to Blighty."

Lost-Love Suit Brings Out Dramatic Meeting.

Wife Willing to Accede "If it was God's Will."

A dramatic meeting between Mrs. Rhoda M. Taber and Mrs. Genie Blackman Lyman, the latter charged by Mrs. Taber with stealing the love of her husband, Wendell Z. Taber, formerly a pharmacist of Pasadena, was related before a jury in Judge Monroe's court yesterday. Mrs. Taber, in her $75,000 lost-love suit names Mrs. Lyman and the latter's mother, Mrs. Mary Blackman, as defendants, alleging that they conspired to coax Mr. Taber to leave his home. Mr. Taber is said to be in poor health.

Mrs. Taber told her story late yesterday afternoon and had not concluded when court adjourned. It appears that she wondered why her husband was unhappy. She questioned him and said he told her he loved Mrs. Lyman. Then Mrs. Taber sent for Mrs. Lyman.

"She declared that she loved my husband. She said she could do more to make him happy than any one else," testified Mrs. Taber. "She told me that I had not made him happy, that I was not a big enough woman to do that. I told her I was big enough to do that, if it was God's will. I held out my hand. I kept asking her if she would do God's will. She turned to go and put her hands on Mr. Taber's shoulders. She looked straight in at him and said she loved him, that she could make him happier than any one else. Mr. Taber stood like an imbecile. He was like one dazed. He made no effort to say anything, only when spoken to.

"At the door she looked straight at Mr. Taber in a hypnotic stare and talked to him. She said, 'It will be all right; be courageous.' He said, 'Yes, it will be all right,' in a dazed way. She turned again, and said to me: 'I want you to know I am coming back if he needs me.' I said, 'If it is God's will.' As soon as the door closed, Mr. Taber cried like a child and threw himself on the lounge."

Mrs. Taber also testified that Mrs. Lyman referred to her several marriages and how unfortunate she had been.

Mrs. Lyman when called as a witness by the attorneys for Mrs. Taber, declared that she felt sorry for Mr. Taber on account of his failing health. He is an old friend of the family, she said, and she stated she took him on trips because of his condition. It was in evidence that Mrs. Lyman, Mrs. Blackman and Mr. Taber were at the Alpine Tavern in the summer of 1917. The hotel register was offered in evidence. On these several trips Mr. Taber occupied a cottage and Mrs. Lyman had a room at the hotel. Mrs. Lyman also testified that she had obtained a divorce from Mr. Lyman. The latter has been subpoenaed by the plaintiff as a witness.

The trial will be resumed today.

TOO TOUGH FOR REFORM SCHOOL.

Youth so Obstreperous has to be Taken from Ione to San Quentin.

Homer Jackson, who was found guilty of forgery last June and sentenced to the State Reform School at Ione, is too touzh for that place of incarceration, so yesterday Superior Judge Craig ordered that he be sent to San Quentin for an indeterminate sentence of from one to fourteen years.

According to the testimony of Ione officers, Jackson persisted in beating up the guards and forming a Bolshevik gang among the inmates.

The peace news should be an incentive for a prompt voluntary response to the big welfare drive that opens tomorrow morning. These organizations now have a greater demand than ever upon them for their services. This demand is from your boy; our boys, and every man wearing an American Army and Navy uniform.

Flash the word that Los Angeles has gone "over the top" on the three Honor Days.

Let us now do our share to make the "after-days" days of cheer and happiness for the American troops. They know what these seven organizations mean. They're waiting; waiting to see what their home city does in response to the United War Work call.

Actual fighting may have stopped, but snow is just beginning to fall over the bivouacs of the troops in Europe. The biting wind, and the sleet and rain of the European winter will make the "Y" hut, the Salvation Army shelter, the K. of C. club, and the field libraries of this United War Work the home centers of our boys.

Flash the word that this city went over voluntarily. Make every minute from Saturday morning until Monday night, "Honor" minutes.

It's your campaign; it's your work; it's your service to your boys over there. Tomorrow your precinct headquarters will be open from 8:00 a.m. until 9:00 p.m. If you have received a letter from one of the campaign teams, go to their headquarters between 9:00 a.m. and 6:00 p.m. If you are employed by a business firm downtown, make your subscription through your employer.

Tomorrow is the first great Honor Day—Sunday is the second—Monday the third—GIVE—and Give All You Can.

KEEP 'EM SMILING!

By giving to these seven organizations all at once, the cost and effort of six additional campaigns is saved.

Unless Americans do give twice as much as ever before, our soldiers and sailors may not enjoy during 1919 their

EVERYBODY NOSE.

Just now people seem to be objecting strongly to the freedom of the sneeze.

BEHIND THE SCENES.

Perhaps it would be well to hear from some of the English prisoners of war before disclosing the peace terms.

THEY SHOULD WORRY.

Some of the movie heroes are getting nervous. They fear that the once admiring populace will forget their handsome faces.

WORKING A REWARD.

Nowadays when a man wants to make a record he can hie himself with an orchestra to one of the phonograph foundries.

IN THE CONCRETE.

They're making silos of concrete staves and they're pouring ships of concrete. As long as they don't make sofa pillows of it we should worry.

GOOD SHOOTING.

Sometimes it is hard to figure out why anyone should want to shoot a mallard duck while the Kaiser is still running wild. There's no closed season on Kaisers.

AN EXAGGERATION.

It is a little stale as a joke, but very timely to point out that what Mark Twain once said of himself may now be applied to the Republican party in California—as well as throughout the nation. It's death has been greatly exaggerated.

CONSIDERATE.

The German peace commissioners are said to be on their way to the French headquarters. And Foch continues to press forward to save them as much of their journey's length as possible. The French have always been known for their courtesy, anyway.

KEEP YOUR POWDER DRY.

The Church Federation of the city is holding prayer for the abatement of the influenza. The efficacy of prayer is well known, and long ago sustained, among others, the valiant Cromwell, who told his roundheads to put their faith in the Lord and keep their powder dry.

BETTER AND BETTER.

Nearly all the aspirin for the American drug market used to be made by a German concern with factories in Jersey City. Now the plant has been taken over by the American custodian and its operation is said to be much more efficient than ever before. This German efficiency had everybody buffaloed when the war broke out, but time and trial have shown its tinsel quality. The Germans are efficient chiefly in things that are brutal and debasing. One portion of Yankee ingenuity is worth a carload of German efficiency.

STILL, WE'RE SATISFIED.

Of course this modern democracy business has its drawbacks. The old Athenians had a pretty nice time of it. Even the slaves were treated fairly well in some respects. They never had to bother about registering and never faced a "flu" mask at the polls. Also, they were allowed free seats in the theaters. It cost them nothing to see the tragedies of the masters—whereas, today, in free America, it costs fifty cents to see a first-class moving picture. Still America wouldn't exchange her form of government for any other in history. Few of us would want to own slaves and none of us would care to be slaves. Moreover, we all want the right of franchise, whether we vote or not. After all, we prefer Old Glory to "the glories of ancient Greece."

THE WAR ETERNAL.

The United War Work Campaign leaders are asking, through the press, "Why should one patriot be obliged to solicit another patriot to do his patriotic duty?" That is a question which the men and women in America should consider as addressed to them personally. It is true that the war is practically won—but the work of caring for the sick, wounded and starving will not be over for some time yet—and that is a part of the work now being undertaken by the United War Work organization. As a matter of fact, there is one war in which there is no discharge for any of us until we have not only routed but killed the enemy—and that is the struggle between the good and evil forces in our own hearts. Though peace should be declared today, and if every sick and maimed soldier were suddenly healed and every hungry mouth on earth given food, the war would not be over for YOU unless you should have the great joy of knowing that you had, by your own unselfish giving and loyal service, helped to bring an end to the world's misery. As long as the issue of selfishness remains unsolved in your soul you will be at war with the most formidable enemy in all the universe—namely, yourself.

"REPARATION."

Indemnity and reparation. They are words that loom large in the peace terms; they sound replete with healing and solace. They conjure up visions of restored towns and villages, of reconstruction, of renewed hope. And yet, with all their promise, how little they can do to repair broken lives, the shattered families, the wrecked homes, the tortured bitterness that four years of Hun ruthlessness has wrought. No matter what the indemnity, no matter what the "restoration," no matter what feats of rebuilding are accomplished, the homes and happiness of France's and Belgium's, of Serbia's, Rumania's and Poland's martyred populations can never be effectually restored for them.

Picture them after the peace is declared, straggling back pitifully to the places where their homes, their warehouses, their shops and business premises once stood—those loved domains from which they were driven in such ghastly terror in those first months of the war. Picture their utter dismay at the dreadful wreckage of what was once their life, their world. All the lares and penates, the loved treasures of generations gone, nothing left but poignant memories—and promises of a reparation, reparation of many things that can never be repaired, that no money can buy. They will have to start life all over again, fortuneless, with all their old means of livelihood swept away, and in a million cases, with the former breadwinner missing or disabled for life. No matter what exacting terms of "reparation" are insisted upon, no German money can mend these broken hearts, these deep, cruel wounds of the spirit that the bitter war has engendered.

In the dreadful evacuations of towns by the civilian populations thousands of families were separated, thousands of tiny babes lost to their parents, thousands of daughters deported into Germany, thousands of fathers snatched from their dear ones to work for Germany who will never find their families again. All the worldly treasures, often of such little intrinsic value, but so intimately essential to the making of homes, have vanished in the upheaval and, with the proclamation of peace and the exciting preoccupation of war gone, there will be such ample time in which to review the despairing desolation, to count the dreadful losses and to weep for a past beyond recall.

"All ye who have tears, prepare to shed them now." Belgium and France had no time for tears in the fierce onslaught of the war; no time for anything but stern courage, indomitable stoicism—and fighting, fighting with all their might. The horror of impending annihilation, the swift succession of appalling tragedies, the incessant necessity for constant vigilance—these left no place for tears. But now tears will be no shame. The terrible reaction must set in as the whole bitter wreckage is reviewed in the calm that follows the storm. As the vast army of sad and tired wayfarers make their way back to the devastated regions they once called home, the acute poignancy of all that they have lost and sacrificed will stand forth in bitter clarity. Reparation. It may hold promise for a distant future, for the next generation, but for the present and the immediate future life holds nothing for them but vague, intangible hopes. Drearily they will follow the deliberations of the council of Allies at the peace table; savagely they will approve each term exacted of the enemy for "reparation," but there can be no real reparation for them, whose lives have been desolated beyond repair. There may be palliatives, but there can be no cure for the present generation in the war-stricken countries.

THE NEW ARMY DISCIPLINE.

Observers who visit France are struck with the amazing feeling of goodfellowship that marks the relationship between the French officer and the soldier, the Poilou.

"Mes enfants," says the officer in talking to his men, and he goes among them as a father who would learn more of the soul of the child, his desires, his likes and dislikes. And the soldiers look upon their officer, not, as the Germans would have us believe is proper, with abject fear and trembling, but as one imbued with authority to lead them, his disciples, and whose power as a leader they themselves created by subjection to discipline.

The idea of what discipline means has undergone a great change since the war began. Our army itself has changed within itself and the hydra-headed monster, discipline, is no longer staring in the face every man who contemplates a military career. Discipline exists for everyone and without it all would be anarchy. The reason armies are powerful is from the fact that discipline for each individual in it applies to all. But a few years ago a huge barrier separated the American officer and enlisted man. It had its beginning with the idea that to make more effective the army training the leader should stand aloof from his men. Now, the more truly human side is predominant: that the captain is the "daddy" of his company or battery.

Many true tales have been told of officers isolated with a large number of their men and unable to associate with them because of this ever-present social barrier between officer and enlisted man. One officer thus set apart could not stand the strain and invited a sergeant to dine with him in secret. But the sergeant later boasted about it and it was typical of the army of those days that a court-martial followed.

But a new spirit has entered our army. It is the feeling that one is the leader and the others the disciples, and that tomorrow a disciple may lead. The German iron rule could not create this spirit, for true discipline comes from the fact that the commander rules because the others obey and not simply because he has some foreordained power. It is because of this very thing that so many men are at grips on the battlefields in Europe. As power must come from somewhere, it originates with the people themselves, who agree to obey certain leaders.

Now one sees an American officer return a salute of a private, conforming with all rules, and then reach out and grasp the enlisted man's hand. It is no breach for officer and private to talk freely to each other and it is often done, more often than not. In the trenches and in chasing the Hun the leader and the followers have but one object, to whip the Hun, and this can only be done by obeying the commander. A few years ago a private had little chance to rise from his rank to a commission and, if he did, he found himself socially ostracised. Obeyed, truly, but just outside the charmed circle. But now that is changed. At first the old-time regular officer began to agitate himself when he saw sergeants, corporals and privates being commissioned. Then came the awakening. The highly-trained officer discovered the new material and, being human, instead of standing aloof, was secretly pleased.

One colonel, who has a deep human trait, expressed it when he said: "These kid officers are putting pep in the army."

Then, being a first-class army man, he went out and proved it. And right beside the "kid" officers he pointed out West Pointers, sticklers for discipline, taking great pride in the fact that some of "his men" were recommended for commissions and tomorrow might say to him: "Please pass the bacon, Bill."

Our friend Webster tells us that discipline is "systematic training or subjection to authority, especially the training of the mental, moral and physical powers by instruction and exercise and authoritative control and direction."

"Discipline means success and anarchy means ruin," says Froude. Russia is the present-day embodiment of a lack of discipline; the people themselves have not created a power and agreed to obey it.

The American army of the future will have discipline, but the military organization will be one vast training school where a man has a right, legal and human, to start at the bottom and graduate at the top. And the man who now is doing squads right can say: "My children."

FEATHERED PRODUCERS.

Genial representatives of our gracious government are working overtime in the matter of showing us how to produce—if not one way, then another. The other day a highbrowed gentleman from the Department of Agriculture was showing us how to sort over our poultry and determine which birds were earning their keep. This party could look a hen coldly in the eye and tell whether she had an egg record before her or not. His ideas on Hoganizing were tried out for fourteen days on one flock of 142 birds and it was found that there was much method in his madness. On his inspection he rejected thirty-seven hens as culls and they would be ordinarily condemned to the block. In this case they were placed in a separate pen and given a trial. In fourteen days these thirty-seven derelicts only laid fifteen eggs—worth about a dollar at top market price. In the same time they consumed about four dollars' worth of fodder. In the same span of two weeks the other 105 hens laid 605 eggs—an average of about six to a bird and worth nearly forty dollars. As their board and keep cost only about half this sum these hens were earning their salary. It is this business of feeding the non-producer that raises havoc with the finances of so many of our poulterers. There is no sentiment to these experts. They often miss their guess, but at the same time, if a hen cannot respond to the simple tests of their inspection, they have no scruples about sentencing her to the guillotine.

ACTION!

Marshal Foch has the terms of armistice for Germany and awaits application for them by the German military command in the field." The government at Berlin has been so informed. In other words, there's no longer a chance for Germany to beat about the bush. The world will soon know what Germany intends to do about it—and if Germany doesn't do something pretty soon Marshal Foch will.

Quoth the Raven.

THE INTERNATIONAL "FLU."

According to the London Times the Spanish influenza is raging in Spain, and Madrid alone has ten thousand cases, including His Majesty, King Alfonso.

It is likewise raging in Western Germany, where small towns of five and six thousand inhabitants record as many as ten deaths a day.

It is raging in the Rand gold mines in South Africa, where during September alone ten thousand cases were reported with a large percentage of deaths, seriously affecting the operation of the mines, and at that time still spreading dangerously.

It has reached wide proportions in Australia, where the schools and universities were closed a month ago and the same drastic health measures necessitated here were being put into force.

England and France have been up against the epidemic for a couple of months, and the collieries in particular have suffered serious ravages.

With reports of the complaint coming from so far afield California cannot feel itself much of a particular martyr.

And Spain certainly cannot claim to have kept very thoroughly out of the war, although she has certainly been impartial in her export of the tribulation.

One thing is certain, climate has precious little to do with it either way. Montana's snowy winds, Africa's grilling sun, California's sunny, happy medium, Britain's moist fogs and frequent rains obviously find equal favor in the sight of the pesky little flu germs. They are very cosmopolitan, at home in the tropics or the arctic alike and in any class of society. Nor are they religious bigots, all creeds are alike to them.

"MADE IN AMERICA."

Some of our colleges and universities are getting very busy these days in matters of art, and especially in the matter of art's brilliant by-product, the artcrafts. It has been discovered that Europe is no longer a pleasant or desirable place in which to study the gentler things of life, and that America herself has now everything to offer.

The last half of this important discovery was made some time before the war, be it said, and was acted upon in a quiet way all over our country. The schools of music and art in New York, Chicago and Philadelphia ranked among the best in the world, and even a certain amount of "atmosphere" was not lacking, though of course we had to admit that it wasn't quite so rarified as that of Paris. Attractive articles of vertu were also turned out in abundance, but we modestly refrained from putting our trade-mark upon them. Germany had us skinned a mile—as had England—or so we thought, for we were squelched by their advertising.

But that's all past. We know now that we are as good as anybody—if not better. The boys "over there" have proved that. Our new and nifty designs in pots, pans and plates will now be marked in bold black letters—"MADE IN AMERICA." They'll find a ready market, too—everywhere but in Germany.

Perilous Peace Times.

"We hear a lot of joking about the shortage of marriageable men on account of the war," Senator Smith of Georgia is credited with saying, "and I guess it must be true, judging from a proposal I just heard from my State. Here was how the girl worked it on her bashful suitor: 'There goes our minister,' she said. 'He's very poor. I wish I could hand him a five.' 'Let me do it,' exclaimed the youth, unsuspectingly, in a fervor of benevolence. 'Oh, Archie, this is so sudden,' bubbled the sweet young thing, and what chance did he have?"

BY THE STAFF.

U. S.—Unconditional Surrender.

This is a tough old world for the loafers these days.

Another horror of the war—the derby hat is coming back.

It appears that old Francis Josef shuffled off just in time, while the shuffling was good.

The taxes imposed by the new war revenue bill are high, but they are not too high. C'est la guerre.

Now that the election is over let us get down to business. The "point-with-pride" campaign is done for.

The only place where a fine yellow streak is appreciated is in the milk bottle that is left on your door step every morning.

Baseball has been introduced into France. Just imagine nine excited, enthusiastic Frenchmen talking to an umpire all at once.

Speaking of our diplomatic dealings with the Kaiser recalls the old-fashioned saying, "He who sups with the devil must use a long spoon."

There is this to be said in favor of women conductors on the local street cars—they would not spit on the shoes of the patrons of the line.

We opine there are a number of local candidates who were "in the hands of their friends," who now wish they had not so placed themselves.

Brace yourself; the Fifth Liberty Loan will be called in April. The four-minute men might as well keep right on rehearsing for their next appearance.

Secretary Daniels has issued a stringent order against kissing in the navy. The old man must be expecting a visit from some of the French admirals.

It is evident that the Kaiser is not hungry and that he dotes on cold meats—his goose has been cooked for a long time and he refuses to partake of the viand.

With the pawpaw crop the largest in many years in the East nobody is worrying about the food regulations there. Ever eat a pawpaw? No; well, you didn't miss anything.

If the truth be told the chances are that Francis Jeremiah Heney is glad that he will not be in a position to indulge in another lamentation over the result of the election.

With so many Turkish prisoners how are the Allies to hand out the Turkish baths? Those who have seen the dirty, unkempt bunch cannot be made to believe that they invented the Turkish bath.

The prices of smoking tobacco are likely to go out of sight when the new war tax is levied. But the saints be praised, we have our old reliable breakfast food. They say it does not make a bad smoke.

With millions of pounds of prunes making up the present year's crops and the average selling price fixed at 11 cents a pound it is easy to figure out how much money the cafeterias lose in serving five for a nickel.

Don't you remember when one could see a good movie show for a nickel; when one bought flour by the barrel; when the butcher would always throw in a lot of meat for one's dog, and when they did not pretend to sell liver? Them were the happy days.

It is not putting the matter too strongly to say that both of the leading political parties are strong rivals to see which of the two makes possible the adoption of the equal suffrage constitutional amendment. Whether it is tactics or an accident, the women are bound to win under the circumstances.

A SOLDIER SANNYASIN.*

A close-shaven head and face has he,
Him embellishes those shining curls no more,
Attracts him no silk shirts, cravats fine,
No fuss, no muss, no craving for nicety;
All that he wants blanket and a kit,
Spring bed, soft pillows he misses not,
Sleeps and rests anywhere he can get,
No longer minds he hunger, thirst or discomfort.

Turns he not to see the mother's tears,
Binds him not the brother's clasp or sister's cares;
Steel and stone has he made the breast,
Throbs of the pleading wife does not vibrate.

Why? Why—this sudden change in one
Whose vision was not beyond the realities of home?
A great awakening has shaken him to the realization:
Renunciation alone establishes the humanity's relation;
By love one idolizes the ideals of life,
Justice, liberty, country or cause.

Life becomes real through fearless sacrifice.
Mystery is unveiled; truth is dawned,
Marches he forword, pointing the unsheathed sword.

SOCIETY.

BY VIRGINIA WOODS.

Senator Works's Golden Wedding.

In honor of the golden wedding anniversary of former United States Senator John D. Works and Mrs. Works, their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Herman S. Darling of No. 517 West Twenty-third street, are entertaining at a family dinner party tonight. Mrs. Darling had looked forward to this date to give a large reception in honor of her parents, but the influenza ban has made anything except a family gathering impossible.

Covers will mark places for Senator and Mrs. Works, Judge Lewis R. Works, Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Belts, Laurence Belts, Mr. and Mrs. Gerrick Fariss, Miss Betty Fariss, Mrs. Ethel Works Bancroft, Miss Barbara Bancroft, Walter Golay, Mrs. P. M. Dalmazzo, Miss Marion Dalmazzo, Mme. Adam Darling, Miss Alice Darling and Miss Charlotte Darling. The table was exquisitely decorated with a bowl of long-stemmed yellow roses and posies were at each place.

For House Guest.

In honor of her house guest, Mrs. I. E. Tone of Des Moines, Iowa, Mrs. Campbell Hardy (Mrs. Bostwick) of No. 422 West Adams street is to give a luncheon party tomorrow at which she has bidden a dozen guests—all former Des Moines friends of Mrs. Tone. Mrs. C. W. Hinchcliffe is entertaining Mrs. Tone and Mr. and Mrs. Hardy at dinner tonight. Mrs. Tone will be here for a couple of weeks before going to San Francisco to visit.

By Way of Farewell.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Forsyth were hosts at a family dinner party and musicale in honor of their son-in-law, W. W. Macdonald, junior member of the firm of Macdonald & Macdonald, bond dealers, who left yesterday for France, where he was called as an athletic instructor under the auspices of the Y.M.C.A. During his college days Mr. Macdonald was a prominent athlete and is especially fitted for his war duties. Mrs. Macdonald, who has also applied for overseas work will reside till called with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Forsyth at the Westlake Hotel.

At Arrowhead.

Quite a number of Los Angeles people have found in Arrowhead Springs an attractive place to visit, and have hied themselves thither during the epidemic. Among the visitors there are Mr. and Mrs. John B. Elliott, Mrs. Alex Campbell, Mrs. P. L. Sigler, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Bray, Mrs. Lucious Fournier, Mr. and Mrs. William Hamilton Cline, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Sumner Kent, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. La Chapelle, Miss Anna E. La Chapelle, Capt. and Mrs. J. E. Rene, Miss Florence McKay.

For Lieut. Beck.

Dr. Horace R. Beck, who recently received his commission as first lieutenant, passed two days with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Beck of No. 624 West Avenue 50 and was entertained at a family dinner by them. He enlisted in June and has since been stationed at Fort Mc-Dowell, stopping in Los Angeles on his way to Camp Kearny, where he will train for overseas service.

Personals.

Lieutenant-Commander and Mrs. Randolph Miner have just returned to Washington from New York, where they were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Lawrence Doheny at the Plaza Hotel. Friends here are much interested in the report that the Miners plan to go to Italy to live after the war, where they anticipate a place in the diplomatic service.

Dr. and Mrs. A. Tilzer of Portland, who are touring Southern California for the benefit of his health are now domiciled at Hotel Clark.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry H. Webb, brother-in-law and sister of Baroness Alfred de Ropp, and who passed the spring and part of the summer here, going on to Santa Barbara, are planning on returning to their home in New York and will visit in San Francisco en route.

Mrs. E. R. Brainerd is back in town after a short visit in San Francisco.

The Aviators.

It is noticed that the dear girls are marrying aviation lieutenants more than any other class of soldiers. This is not because so many of them are killed, but because the service is the most romantic, and if there is anything a well-balanced girl likes more than anything else it is romance. And to have a husband who sails the blue skies and goes hiding in the clouds makes a girl very proud. She has a right to be. He is looked upon as a superman who gets beyond the domain of gravitation and wanders in the regions where the angels are supposed to fly. When such a one gets back to earth and sits with his wife before the cordial fireplace, and talks to her of stars, sunsets and dreams, could there be more delightful company? Who would not be an aviator and face all the perils of aviation for such an experience? No wonder the government has more aviators than it wants.—[Ohio State Journal.

RIPPLING RHYMES.

THE UNHAPPY BARD.

Most workers pull down princely wages, reward of honest sweat; but still the bards and kindred sages must take what they can get. The man who comes to do my choring draws many bones a day, and at odd moments he is roaring because of meager pay. At times I hire a learned mechanic to tinker round my car; his charges put me in a panic and give my soul a jar. The butcher, grocer and the baker have hiked their prices high; and I'm afraid the undertaker will skin me when I die. On everything the price is higher, except on deathless pomes, and bards can hardly find a buyer for products of their domes. My wife declares she needs a bonnet, she's worn her lid three years, and I remark, "I'll write a sonnet, a thing of smiles and tears; and if it fetches in some plunder, a roll of good long green, you'll have a helmet that's a wonder, the smoothest ever seen." Then in the market place I flaunt it, among the shopping gents, but not a buyer seems to want it for more than forty cents. They've raised the price on hens and hearses, on all the things that grow, but soaring and immortal verses won't bring ten cents a throw.

HOUSE CLEANING UNDERTAKEN BY EXHIBITORS.

By Grace Kingsley.

A mighty house cleaning in the picture business is to take place shortly if the picture exhibitors of the West, headed by J. A. Quinn, owner of Quinn's Rialto, have anything to say about it. It is to be properly to launch the movement in which co-operation of producers and exhibitors all over the country has already been requested, a resolution was adopted by the Theatre Owners' Association of this city, at a meeting held November 4, with all the leading members present.

The scope of the house cleaning includes not only the elimination of bad stories, from moral, technical and literary standpoints, but applies also to advertising methods, to the abolition of wild-cat producing, the elimination of overproduction, bad direction, etc., the latter conditions being to the end that exhibitors may be relieved by reason of inflated film rentals and stabilized conditions for the producers.

The trades papers are all enthusiastically advertising the movement, which is voiced in the following resolution:

"Whereas the exhibitors of the Association have in the past felt the burden of overproduction and excessive waste in the motion picture industry, and

"Whereas J. A. Quinn, a recognized authority on production and exploitation with a wide and varied experience as a successful exhibitor has propounded to us a movement for the regulation of production and elimination of waste, and

"Whereas, said movement has been found to possess merit worthy of the support of all exhibitors throughout the country.

"Therefore, be it resolved that this association extend to him its enthusiastic indorsement and full support of his plan for the betterment of the conditions now existing."

(Signed) Theater Owners' Association, Inc., by Glenn Harper, secretary."

Salvation Army Work Filmed.

And now the activities of the Salvation Army are to be recorded in the deathless film, and arrangements have just been completed whereby Evangeline Booth is to appear in a big feature telling the story of the Salvation Army both in war and peace. The picture is to be made in New York and in Hollywood, with Edward Jose directing.

Commander Booth in speaking of the picture explained that the Salvation Army people will not act in this picture in the capacity of actors and actresses, but will be filmed in connection with the work as they pursue their ordinary daily functions both at the front in France and in the United States in the slums and tenements.

Charles Edwin Whitaker has written the scenario for the production.

Lillian Gish Improves.

Lillian Gish's case of Spanish influenza has developed into pneumonia, but she was reported slightly better yesterday. Miss Gish is reported to have gone to a sanatorium for rest and recuperation.

Elmer Clifton, who has been assisting D. W. Griffith, in directing propaganda picture, is ill with the "flu."

Orpheums Re-open.

Col. John R. Bray, manager of the local Orpheum, yesterday received the glad tidings that all of the houses along the Orpheum Circuit are preparing to open their doors. The first will be the Denver house, with tomorrow set as the date, while the Des Moines, Omaha and Kansas City Orpheums are scheduled to open next Monday. Several of the acts listed here have been ordered East.

THE RATTLESNAKE.

In the State of Arizona, when a prospector, riding or leading a pack animal across the desert or through some rocky mountain pass, is suddenly startled by the warning of the rattler, he stops and kill. It is the moral law of the land and no man thinks of violating it by deliberately allowing a rattlesnake to escape. The deadly reptile is the menace of the outlands, and the duty of Arizona travelers is to kill.

More than four years ago a rattlesnake startled the world with his rattle, a rattle a million times more deadly than that of the Arizona reptile, for the rattler of the many attacked a whole world, and the rattler of Arizona hisses and strikes only in blind defense when it imagines itself in danger. The German rattler hissed for half a century, the hiss of his deadly, grading kultur, and his final death rattle was that of the sword in its sheathing from the scabbard.

Is this rattler to be allowed to crawl back into his German dens, into his forts, as the Arizona reptile hides away in the rocky crypts, unscathed, unrepentant, unpunished? The duty of the hour is to rid the world of the rattler of Germany, unrepentant, the scabbard of Autocracy.—[Sacramento Union.

THE Y. M. HUT A BLESSING.

It is a thing for Americans and others to be thankful for and glad of that everywhere from port of debarkation to battle line the forces of the Y.M.C.A. are on hand to strengthen where strength is needed and sometimes to help maintain the morale of our boys. They are there to minister not to any special, but to every possible need that their men may be confronted with. The Y.M.C.A. hut is a blessing in that it has been a refuge for the tired, the homesick and the war-worn spirit; and in my honest conviction that the extraordinary temptations of life that beset our young manhood are less severe in France tonight than they would be in our own home towns here in America, no matter where those home towns may be, because all over France the Y.M.C.A. hut has been used for the idle hour—and many of these idle hours are not many days over here realize—a place to go, a place at that where there are always something doing, and, last but not least, too, where the only preachment you get who do not want it, are the preachments of lofty ideals.—[John Kendrick Bangs in Salvation Men.

THE Y. M. HUT A BLESSING.

It is a thing for American mothers to be thankful for and glad about that everywhere from port of entry to battle line the forces of the Y. M. C. A. are on hand to strengthen where strength is needed and aid sometimes to help maintain the morale of our boys. They are there to minister not to any special, but to every possible need that their sons are confronted with. The Y.M.C.A. is a blessing in that it has become a refuge for the tired, the homesick and the war-worn spirit; and in the many honest conviction that the ordinary temptations of life that beset our young manhood are less strong in France tonight than they are in our own home towns here in America, no matter where those home towns may be, because all efforts of the Y.M.C.A. hut has provided for the idle hour—and how many these idle hours are not many of us over here realize—a place to go, a place at that where there is always something doing, and a place too, where the only preaching is to get who do not want it, are the breachments of lofty example of John Kendrick Bangs in Action Men.

NOTED BOOK LOVER PASSES.

George M. Millard had Extensive Collection.

Was Widely Known in the Literary Centers.

[LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.]

PASADENA, Nov. 7.—In the death of George M. Millard at his home, No. 1651 Huntington drive, South Pasadena, there passed away one of the most widely-known book collectors and book lovers in the world.

News of his death will cause sorrow in literary centers all over the world, and in many cities and lands, among book collectors and literary people, for Mr. Millard perhaps was better known in Chicago and New York and London and Paris than he was in Southern California, where he has made his home for the past five years.

Mr. Millard died Wednesday, and the funeral service will be held at the residence Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock. It will be strictly private. Mrs. Millard will then take the body to Chicago, their home for so many years, for burial.

Mr. Millard came to Southern California and established his charming home on Huntington drive six years ago. He was associated with and an important factor in the development of this country's literary and cultural life from the time of his graduation from school. It only were books Mr. Millard's work, but his hobby as well. He was a most enthusiastic bibliophile and a widely-recognized authority on early editions and rare books. His collection of books in South Pasadena home is said to be one of the most remarkable in the country. From all parts of the world he collected his books.

The deceased was born in Greenfield, Mass. In October, 1901, he married Miss Alice Covell Parsons of Chicago, the ceremony taking place at St. Bride's church, London. Mr. Millard and one brother, in the east, survive him. Since their marriage Mrs. Millard had been intimately associated with her husband in his life work and it is her intention to carry it on.

Ball, Regular army officer, who makes his home in Pasadena and who is well known here, has been directed to go to the War College in Washington as a general staff student in the war plans division. CLOSED ANOTHER WEEK.

[LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.]

SANTA ANA, Nov. 7.—Schools, churches, movies and pool halls here will remain closed next week, it was decided by the Board of Health today. The business college will be permitted to reopen if pupils and teachers wear "flu" masks. Schools probably would have reopened next Monday except for the fact that a great many students would have been kept out by their parents. Two deputy health officers with police powers will be appointed to help control the epidemic among Mexican residents of the vicinity.

BLYTHE COTTON MEN AWAIT BETTER PRICES.

[LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.]

BLYTHE, Nov. 6.—Thousands of bales of cotton are being piled into the yards after passing through the gins, while the Palo Verde Valley cotton growers await some change in the cotton prices. This explains why the expected large output from this valley is now in abeyance. With increased cost of labor and other overhead expense, the growers do not feel inclined to part with their rich yield until the price goes over the 30-cent top.

With the price quoted from market wires at present, the cotton receives flickering offers of between 27 to 29 cents. The cotton crop, as ginned daily, proves far fatter than in preceding years. The quality is superior, state buyers and brokers, while the quantity has more than doubled this season.

COLTON WOMAN DIES.

[LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.]

COLTON, Nov. 7.—Less than a month after she had celebrated her golden wedding day, Mrs. Emma Young, wife of Denton Young of Newport Beach, was called to the great beyond. Her death occurred Tuesday evening at the home of a brother, Orrin Barnett, just three months to a day from the time she had been brought up to Colton in the hope of benefiting her health. For over a year she had suffered from rheumatism. The funeral will take place Friday in Los Angeles.

ALFALFA GROWERS' MEETING.

[LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.]

BAKERSFIELD, Nov. 7.—So that alfalfa growers of Kern county may better market their product, Harris Weinstock, head of the State Farm Marketing Bureau, will arrive in Bakersfield today to complete plans for the co-operation of the farmers in selling their product. Alfalfa is now selling in the county, it is said, at a price lower than twelve months ago. The reason for this, it is pointed out, is due to the lack of the growers in placing their product on the market through the proper channels.

NO YEOMANETTES FOR NAVY NOW.

Several Pass Examinations, Receive Appointments and They're Disappointed.

[LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.]

LOS ANGELES HARBOR, Nov. 7.—There are to be no yeomanettes at the Naval Reserve Training Station.

After several San Pedro young women had successfully passed their examinations orders were received at the station that no more yeomanettes, or yeomen either, are to be enrolled in the service.

The young women who have successfully passed their examinations had received their appointments and had been ordered to appear before the proper officers for enrollment.

STILL HOPING HER HUSBAND IS ALIVE.

[LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.]

MONROVIA, Nov. 7.—Although the name of A. L. Sternburg, husband of Mrs. Sternburg of this city, appeared in the casualty list more than three weeks ago, the latter is still hoping that the news that he was killed may turn out to be a mistake.

Because of some error when the official list was published, his address was given as Temple, Tex., while Mrs. Sternburg's husband was drafted from Temple, a small town near Waco. At the time, she thought that the same name was only a coincidence. Then her husband's letters ceased coming, but she had no official notice from Washington.

At last, frantic with anxiety, she wired the War Department, and has received an answer to the effect that the man mentioned in the casualty list was her husband. No explanation was given why she had not received official notice. Because of the previous mistakes, she is still hoping that her soldier husband is yet living.

ed by a trained nurse. According to attending physicians, he will suffer no great injury from the blow, other than the inconvenience of being confined to his quarters.

Little information could be secured by Detectives Yarrow and Ziegler except that given by Mr. Fisher. Halley is said to have represented himself to be an athlete and an aviation student; also alleging that he conducted a drug store in this city. This latter statement, the police say, is false.

Hallcy is described as being five feet four inches tall, 110 to 120 pounds in weight, smooth shaven, dark complexion dark hair, slightly bald, very high forehead, dark brown eyes, a neat dresser and very talkative. A warrant charging him with assault with a deadly weapon and attempt to commit robbery was secured yesterday by the detectives.

ANOTHER DEATH SEEN IN BRAY CASE.

the city, and members of the narcotic squad, admitted yesterday that they have had Dr. Finch under investigation for a number of different cases, as did W. B. Luckenbach, inspector, and Walter A. Larson, prosecutor for the State Board of Pharmacy.

According to records on file in the Pharmacy Board office, Dr. Finch was arrested in August, 1916, and on August 18 four cases were filed against him, charging him with supplying narcotics to known drug victims. On September 19 he was convicted by a jury in Judge Chesebro's court and sentenced to pay a fine of $400 and serve 180 days in the City Jail. The jail sentence later was suspended.

FORMER PHYSICIAN HERE DIES AT SEA.

CAPT. H. C. NELSON ENLISTED IN BRITISH ARMY TWO YEARS AGO.

News reached his widow only yesterday that Capt. H. C. Nelson, M. D., of the Canadian army, died on board H.M.S. Commonwealth 300 miles out from Montreal, and that he was buried at the latter place on October 22.

Capt. Nelson, who was a practicing physician here for twenty-three years, leaves a widow, Dr. Laura B. Nelson, an osteopathic physician, and a daughter, Miss Florence Nelson, of No. 1733 North Western avenue. The daughter attends the Hollywood High School.

Capt. Nelson's brother, George, is with the British army, and his brother Fred, is a shipyards worker at San Pedro. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. S. Nelson, live at No. 5443 Carlton Way. His father has been in the Arcade depot baggage department for twenty years.

Capt. Nelson was born in Truro, Nova Scotia. Although he was 45 years old, and over the British draft age, and although America had not then entered the war, he enlisted for service two years ago.

IN TEMPERANCE WORK.

Daughter of One-Time Presidential Candidate of Prohibition Party Would Go to Australia.

Miss Desdemona Chaffin, of Long Beach, daughter of Eugene W. Chaffin, one-time Presidential candidate of the Prohibition party, applied yesterday to R. S. Zimmerman, passport clerk of the office of the clerk of the United States District Court, for a passport allowing her to go to Australia. Her mission to the Land of the Kangaroo is in the interest of temperance work.

It is announced that Miss Chaffin will deliver a series of lectures in Australia, and organize prohibition or temperance leagues, later on extending her work to New Zealand. She expects to be absent from the United States at least two years.

Miss Chaffin says her visit to that far-away land is in response to the resolution adopted by the World's Christian Endeavor convention in London, for "a saloonless nation in 1920 and a dry world by 1930." Her father, who is more than 60 years of age, will accompany her on her long trip, it is said.

FROST LATE TO ARRIVE.

[LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.]

BAKERSFIELD, Nov. 7.—Making his latest visit here in more than twenty-eight years, old Jack Frost dropped in on Bakersfield this morning and caused shivers to run up the spines of the old settlers.

According to one pioneer, this is the latest arrival of frost for more than a decade. No damage was done as the frost was a high one.

Superior Judge Dismisses Case Against Glenn Way, who Turned State's Evidence.

Disposition of the last case against the soldier auto bandits who started a wave of crime last spring which resulted in the death of Phillip Metz, and their being landed behind bars, was made yesterday when the case against Glenn Way, who turned State's evidence and assisted the prosecution, was dismissed.

Way was charged with robbery, resulting from the hold-up of Roy Richardson. Other members of the gang, received various sentences, and Harold Denman, alleged leader, is now in the County Jail waiting an appeal to the Supreme Court from a death sentence.

In dismissing the case, Superior Judge Craig stated that it was done on the recommendation of Deputy District-Attorney Shelley.

AUTO HITS WOMEN, THEN SPEEDS AWAY.

TWO VICTIMS ARE SERIOUSLY INJURED WHEN STRUCK BY BIG TOURING CAR.

Two women were run down and seriously, perhaps fatally, injured at Fair Oaks avenue and Hope street, South Pasadena, at 6:30 o'clock last night, by a seven passenger automobile, whose occupants did not even stop to offer assistance to their victims; instead, the automobile put on power and sped away.

The injured women are:

Mrs. Ida Gladden, No. 1920 Primrose avenue, South Pasadena, and her sister, Mrs. Esther Leisenring, No. 1116 Beachwood drive, Los Angeles. Both women are middle-aged.

They were crossing the street when the automobile hit them. They were taken to the Pasadena Hospital. Mrs. Gladden's injuries were the most serious. She sustained two broken arms and internal injuries. Her condition is grave.

Mrs. Leisenring suffered painful injuries but not so serious as her sister's.

The police are making a search for the automobiliga. They are looking for a big black touring car with a bent front fender. The car was seen to turn from Fair Oaks avenue into Mission street and from there the automobilists made their escape.

ANGELENO KILLED.

Capt. Clarence F. Smith of the Three Hundred and Sixty-fourth Infantry, a brother-in-law of Leo V. Youngworth, formerly of the firm of Smith Bros., automobile agents of this city, was killed in action on October 1, according to Congressman H. Z. Osborne, who received official word from Washington yesterday.

The captain was well known here, and attended the officers' training camp at Monterey. He was at Camp Lewis a year ago, and his regiment has been in France about three months. Congressman Osborne thinks he was killed in the fighting in the Argonne Forest, where he was known to be in action.

PREPARING FOR PEACE.

BY CHAPIN HALL.

The cycle is but half completed. The third act with its denouement; its big punch is over, but still the tragedy must be rounded out and brought to that happy ending craved by all audiences. The last act will be devoid of the awful bloodshed and somberness of the earlier periods, but there are still many, many problems which the master playwright is called upon to solve, and into the solving must go the keenest skill.

The Victory of War is ours; the Victory of Peace must yet be won. Many problems are pressing. Problems for which no precedent may be followed. The country may be called upon to endure a period of transition from the arts of Mars to the paths of Peace that will try our very souls. The work of dismantling the vast machinery of war and reassembling it for the reconstruction of the world, industrially, commercially, financially may well give pause.

To a large extent the burden of peace falls upon the same interests which have been relied upon to provide the sinews of war. The work of the soldier, the task of the fighting man, will soon be ended, but not so that of the man behind the man behind. He must finance the world; he must rebuild the world; he must provide for the re-entry into civilian life of millions of men suddenly withdrawn whose places have to a large extent been filled by others; he must build up our export trade; he must put our merchant marine into service; in a word, upon the masters of finance and of trade now rests the tremendous task of beating our swords into plowshares.

It is reasonable to suppose that with the beginning of the period of readjustment, which now may be said to have entered its first stage the United States will experience a tremendous business revival. For months our thoughts, our energies, and our dollars have been turned into terms of war. Our normal trade has been diverted; the ordinary demands of peace have been superceded. All this must be changed. Shelves must be restocked; buildings programmes must be taken up where they were left off; municipal, State, road and corporate improvements and extensions must be developed; always the returning soldier must be taken care of; reassimilated. No one knows how these questions are to be met; no one knows the answer; no specific plan can be worked out in advance so that it will be possible to say, "at such and such a time we will do thus and so," but we have learned to do things in the past twenty months; we have learned to work together, and the new problems will be met and solved.

Locally there was an almost immediate response yesterday to the reassuring news which came from overseas and which presaged the early cessation of hostilities. This was reflected in the stock market, and throughout the city generally. In the retail stores buying was more brisk; in the bond houses plans were laid to project long-deferred issues, and everywhere a feeling of optimism prevailed—optimism and confidence. As soon as the rigid regulations which have been thrown about the city by the health authorities because of the Influenza scare have been relieved, and the dammed-up tide of travel is loosed, Southern California will enter upon her period of greatest development and prosperity.

MARKET RESPONSIVE.

As soon as the peace rumor was circulated upon the floor of the Stock Exchange yesterday morning there was an immediate and concerted forward movement on the part of the public. A flood of buying orders descended and there was a strenuous effort to "get aboard." News from New York of a soaring market was followed locally by a sympathetic movement and while the stronger stocks jumped the weaker ones took on an unwonted rigidity. In a short time General Petroleum advanced three points, Union two points, United Eastern 10 cents, and the others showed encouraging signs with but little offered. The time before the noon adjournment was so short that all of the listings did not have an opportunity to participate in the new conditions. The air was so surcharged with expectation of the impending armistice that it was decided to hold no afternoon session, but to devote the time to preparation for the period of readjustment which is coming. The New York exchange also closed early, and in San Francisco there has been no afternoon session since the "flu" epidemic began to claim so much of the spot light.

PATRIOTIC PATIENCE.

It was a busy day at the banks, and at all of them long lines of Liberty Loan Buyers were in evidence. It was the last day upon which the 4 per cents could be turned over for transmission to San Francisco for conversion. It was the day fixed for the delivery of bonds to cash subscribers. It was the day for completing payments on the Third Liberty Loan and taking up the bonds of that issue, and many were making payments on the fourth issue. At the Security, where the windows were thronged all day and until long after the regular closing time, attractive signs were posted asking the people to exercise their "patriotic patience." It was pointed out that this bank (and all banks) derived no profit from the work, but cheerfully donated their space, time and services of a large force of clerks; that at this particular institution there were a total of 65,277 subscribers to be served, and that $15,057,750 had already been handled over the counters. "Please be patient" the appeal concluded, and the crowds, seeing the point, possessed their souls with the quality recommended and took the unavoidable delays with cheerful resignation.

All through banking circles yesterday there ran an undertone of optimism and of relief and a feeling that the dawn of a new day was breaking.

NEW YORK STOCK MARKET.

NEW YORK, Nov. 7.—Wall street experienced one of the wildest and most bewildering sessions in its varied experience today, the stock market responding feverishly to unconfirmed reports of the signing of the peace armistice with Germany.

The financial community accepted these reports and gave itself over to a delirium of bullish enthusiasm.

Practically all the leading stock issues, excepting those of the distinctive war group, made extreme advances ranging from two to thirteen points, the rise being largely retained at the very active close.

In recognition of the desire of the brokers to celebrate, the authorities of the Exchange suspended operations half an hour ahead of the regular period, but the press of business as represented by buying orders was so great that final transactions were not recorded until some fifteen minutes later.

Stocks opened at gains of 1 to 3 points, cables from neutral points telling of revolts and mutinies in the German army and navy inviting further extension of long accounts.

Rumors of the alleged ratification of the armistice gained currency at midday and had little influence for a time, except to cause further heaviness in the munition and little stocks.

Rails and oils were among the first shares to make strong response, high close transportations mounting to the year's best prices at gains of 2 to 7 points. Mexican petroleum rose almost 13 points, and related shares 2 to 5. Motors, coppers and peace specialties finished at net advances of 2 to 4 points. Total sales amounted to 1,150,000 shares.

Railway bonds gained 1 to 4 per cent., various foreign issues 1 to 2½, and liberty offers were firm. Total sales, par value, aggregated $16,300,000. Old United States bonds were unchanged on call.

FALSE PEACE REPORTS SMASH CORN MARKET.

PROVISIONS MAKE BIG ADVANCE, RANGING FROM 10 CENTS TO $2.50.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

CHICAGO, Nov. 7.—False reports that Germany had already signed an armistice brought about a savage whipsaw market today in the corn trade. After prices had plunged downward about 6 cents a bushel, a violent upturn ensued and the close was wild, 3¼ cents net lower to 1⅞ cents advance, with December 1.21¼ to 1.22 and January 1.23¼ to 1.24. Corn finished unchanged to ¼ cent lower. The outcome in provisions was an advance ranging from 10 cents to $2.50.

Oats swayed with corn, but within a narrower range.

Provisions were relatively inactive and closed at the topmost quotations reached on the overhasty peace bulge.

CHICAGO, Nov. 7.—Cash sales: Corn, No. 2 yellow, 1.28@1.30; No. 3 yellow, 1.26@1.33; No. 4 yellow, 1.20@1.25. Rye, No. 2, 1.62. Barley, .80@1.00. Timothy, 7.00@10.00. Clover, nominal.

Sick Room Disinfection in Spanish Influenza

Spanish Influenza runs riot when the sick-room is not thoroughly disinfected.

Sick-room Disinfection also protects the patient. It reduces the danger of a "relapse" which is often reinfection by the germs that breed in the sick person's own body.

Pin your faith to

Lysol Disinfectant

It annihilates all germ life at the instant of contact. Keep Lysol solution always in the bedpan. Boil all eating utensils, towels, clothing and bed clothing used by the patient, in water which contains Lysol. Wipe daily all woodwork in the sick-room—floor, window frames, doors, etc. in water to which a few drops of Lysol have been added.

Also use Lysol solution in toilets, garbage cans, sinks and drains. Put a few drops of Lysol in all scrubbing water.

A 50c bottle makes 5 gallons of powerful disinfectant; a 25c bottle makes 2 gallons. Accept only true Lysol—made, bottled, signed and sealed by Lehn & Fink.

To Disinfect Offices, Buildings and Factories

Lysol F. & F. (Farm & Factory) is unrefined Lysol Disinfectant and contains all its power. It is used to disinfect big buildings, institutions and factories. Sold in 5 gallon cans and 50 gallon barrels.

WE CURE

Piles, Fistula

And All Rectal Diseases

Without An Operation

Forty-five years we have been curing diseases of the rectum and bowel. During that time our experience has enabled us to develop a method that is superior to others. We cure without surgery, and our patients are not confined in bed and seldom lose a moment's time from business.

To Whom It may Concern:

I know it may concern very seriously many of my acquaintances, as I was a multitude of others with rectal troubles. I suffered for many years with a fissure and hemorrhoids (piles.) What I went through can be realized by those similarly affected. My trouble had been diagnosed incurable by some physicians; no relief promised. I saw in the Los Angeles Times an ad by Drs. White and Wainwright. It sounded good to me. I went to see them. I put my case in their hands. In a few days the pain disappeared. I am now well and able to do my work with pleasure. I am not a burden to myself. Were it possible I would not go back to where I was for all the world's riches. I give freely all the credit to the above firm of doctors. Anyone who desires can find me at my address.

EXTRA EFFORT FOR WAR FUND.

Seven Organizations Depend on Voluntary Aid.

Drive is Endangered by Flu: Urgent Appeal Made.

Greater Support than Ever is Needed, Says Mott.

"On account of the influenza epidemic with its consequent effect on the United War Work Campaign organization, it will be necessary for Los Angeles to put forth the greatest effort since the war began, in order to save the city from a humiliating failure."

This was the statement made yesterday by H. M. Haldeman, chairman of the Los Angeles campaign committee. He added:

"During the three honor days—November 9, 10 and 11—the public is urged to make its subscriptions voluntarily. Do not compel the overtaxed organization to solicit your subscription. Nothing short of voluntary and generous support on the part of individual citizens can save the day.

"The urgency of the situation cannot be overstated. Every man, woman and child in the city is called upon to do his part."

NEED GREATER THAN EVER.

John R. Mott, general chairman of the National Campaign Committee of the United War Work Campaign, urges the American people to greater support than ever before for the seven big welfare organizations in the following telegram received by Chairman Haldeman:

"Our whole national organization is united in conviction that the war work activities of the seven organizations must continue to be pressed with full and increasing vigor, and that whenever peace comes it will be followed by a long period of demobilization. Military authorities say it will take fifteen months to bring the Canadian Army home and eighteen months for the Australian Army. All militant authorities with whom I have consulted insist it will require over twelve months after peace is declared to bring the American Army home. This demobilization period will present the greatest need for our work and by far our greatest opportunity. Therefore, there should be no hesitation or change in any of our campaign plans, except that of enlarging them and redoubling our efforts to secure if possible 50 per cent. oversubscription."

Franklin K. Lane, Secretary of the Interior, wired: "I earnestly beg that you do not relax your efforts in the slightest degree on account of the armistice news. If an armistice is concluded, this does not mean that the war work is over. In any case the emergency will not be over for a long time. The work that you have been called upon to perform must go on undiminished."

HONOR BADGES ARRIVE.

Two hundred thousand honor badges arrived at headquarters yesterday. A cablegram has been prepared to flash immediately to the Los Angeles boys in France and to be printed in the Stars and Stripes newspaper. This cablegram will be sent if Los Angeles goes over the top by Monday night, the last of the three honor days.

Monday has been set aside as honor day for the school children. The schools will be opened to receive honor subscriptions from the boys and girls to the United States War Work Campaign. Twelve thousand Victory Honor boys and girls are asked to make their pledges on the honor day, particularly on Monday.

Subscriptions are already coming in at headquarters. The first man to arrive yesterday, was a Canadian private who refused to give his name, but made a subscription of $10, and said he wished this money to be given in the memory of the battle of Mons.

Every precinct headquarters will be open tomorrow morning at 8 o'clock and will stay open until 9 o'clock p.m. receiving the honor subscriptions. It is expected over 200,000 people in Los Angeles will take advantage of these honor days and make possible the sending of the honor cablegram to France.

VALLEY HUNT CLUB WANTS TO CONTINUE.

FRANCHISE RUN OUT, PASADENA ORGANIZATION FORMS ITSELF ANEW.

Pasadena's aristocratic organization, the Valley Hunt Club, petitioned the Superior Court yesterday for permission to transfer the property of that corporation to the newly organized corporation, "The Valley Hunt Club." The step was taken by the directors because the franchise had run out, terminating the existence of the club, due to the inadvertence of the petitioners and the other members of the club.

The clubhouse is located on Orange Grove avenue. The petitioners John Earl Jardine, W. D. Lacey, Frederick B. Carter, Jr., Walter Raymond and Dr. Raymond B. Mixsell, trustees and directors of the club. The club was organized in 1892.

The petition, prepared by Attorney Halstead, of Pasadena, says that it may be mentioned that the Valley Hunt Club "instituted and for many years conducted the Tournament of Roses and pageant which have become famous throughout the world. For these reasons and because of their pride in the name, history and traditions of the club, all its members, when they learned that the charter had expired by limitation, were opposed to allowing the club to go out of existence or of winding up its affairs or of disposing of its property," but they "were desirous of perpetuating the name and carrying on the affairs of the club as heretofore."

KULTUR EXEMPLIFIED.

A railway accident at Landsberg, Prussia, in which thirty persons were killed, produced some characteristic tokens of German kultur. The Vossiche Zeitung says that great crowds attempted to rob the dead and injured, and that the soldiers and gendarmes who were obliged to intervene arrested several railway officials in the act of appropriating valuables.—[London Times.

ESPIONAGE ACT RULING MADE.

No Cases to be Taken to Grand Jury Until Attorney-General Passes on Them.

United States District Attorney O'Connor yesterday received an important communication from Atty.-Gen. Gregory, regarding the future operation of the Espionage Act.

The judicial department of the government holds that hereafter there are to be no prosecutions of cases under this law before the Federal grand jury, unless the matter has been submitted to the Attorney-General, with the evidence in the case, and the latter orders it to be further prosecuted.

Arrests may be made for alleged violation of the Espionage Act, and warrants of arrest issued, the communication advises, but until the individual cases have been passed upon, they must not be presented to the grand jury.

There has been much difference of opinion throughout the country as to the meaning of certain sections of the Espionage Act, and in order to have a uniform ruling in prosecutions, the final presentment of the matter will hereafter be left in the hands of the Attorney-General.

FLED IN DELIRIUM, DEATH DUE TO FLU.

MYSTERY SURROUNDING FINDING OF WOMAN'S BODY AT NORWALK CLEARED.

The mystery surrounding the death of the woman whose body was discovered last Wednesday morning, lying in a ditch near Norwalk, was cleared up yesterday when investigation by the Sheriff's office showed that it was a case of influenza delirium and that the woman was Mrs. Marie Reydongino, who lived at the corner of Carmelita and Center streets.

Deputy Sheriffs Reyes and Strong found that the entire family was suffering from influenza. The husband, Antonio Reydongino, saw his wife leave the house Tuesday night, but was unable to summon help. The four children, whose ages range from 2 to 10 years, are critically ill at the County Hospital.

When the woman left the house she grabbed up an armful of children's clothes and a lantern, which were found near the body. It was evident she had proceeded but a few feet when she fell unconscious. Her body was discovered by Francisco Hernandez.

FIXING PRICE ON RAW COTTON UNNECESSARY.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 7.—Fixing of prices on raw cotton is unnecessary and impracticable, President Wilson will be told by the cotton investigating committee of the War Industries Board. This announcement was made tonight by Dr. Thomas W. Page, chairman of the committee.

The committee's conclusion, Dr. Page said, was based on the fact that there is no prospective shortage of cotton and the belief that cotton distribution committee can secure a proportionate market of the lower as well as the higher grades of cotton more effectively by other methods. Continuance of the work of the committee is recommended.

COMMERCIAL.

LOCAL PRODUCE MARKET.

The local produce market yesterday was a busy thoroughfare and all commodities offered moved like magic. Small speculators were out in numbers buying in small vegetables and fruits for canning purposes. Cooler weather is stimulating the demand for apples and prices have advanced on the Watsonville Ballflowers, although other varieties are holding about the same. Very little stock is being taken out of storage just now, but the Thanksgiving trade will probably draw considerable stock out of storage in the next three weeks. Although prices to the trade have not advanced, potatoes are in active demand and moving freely. Consumers seem to be anticipating a rise in prices. Onions are in light supply and are moving rapidly at the prevailing high prices for immediate consumption. Tomatoes were considerably cheaper owing to the ordinary quality of the stock offered.

Thirty per cent of the cherry pack of the Libby, McNeill & Libby canneries has been commandeered by the government for army and navy consumption according to officials of the company here. Two thousand cases of cherries are being made ready for inspection, the container being strapped with iron for the journey overseas. The first carload of oranges shipped from the Oroville district was on its way east yesterday. The fruit was non-sweated and is expected to command a high price in the eastern markets.

DISMISS WAR OPERATIVE.

Accepted Money from Alien Enemy to Let Him Go, Department of Justice Official Charges.

Special Agent Keep of the Department of Justice yesterday concluded an investigation of certain activities of Louis Julius, a member of the police war squad, with the result that Julius was summarily dismissed from the force. He had been at the head of the bureau for the registration of alien enemies.

It was charged that Julius released Frank Scheffler, a registered German alien, from the City Jail, and accepted $15 from the prisoner for letting him go.

Scheffler was taken into custody for not having his registration card in his possession. It is said that he had sent it to Lund, Utah, at the suggestion of Julius to have the alien enemy registration bureau at Lund indorse on it a permit for Scheffler to leave that city. It was claimed that when he was picked up here some days ago that he failed to secure this permit. Scheffler was released from jail last Saturday. Yesterday Scheffler returned and handed Julius $15 in bills, it is said, that had been marked for identification by one of Mr. Keep's operatives.

Unlike Topsy— Swift & Company Has Not "Jest Growed"

Swift & Company, in fifty years of well ordered growth, has become one of the great national services because it has learned to do something for the American people which they needed to have done for them, in the way in which they preferred to have it done.

It has met each successive demand, in the changing conditions of national life, by getting good meat to increasing millions effectively, efficiently, economically, and expeditiously.

The Swift & Company packing plants, refrigerator cars, car routes, branch houses, organization, and personnel of today are the practical solutions, born of practical experience, to the food problems of a half a century.

Because of all of these elements working in correlation and unison, Swift & Company is able to supply more and better meat to more people than would have been possible otherwise, at a net profit per pound of meat so low (a fraction of a cent) that the consumer price is practically unaffected.

Strip away any portion of this vast, smooth-running human machine, and you make a large part of the meat supply uncertain, lose the benefit of half a century of fruitful experience, and scatter the intelligent energies of men who have devoted a life work toward meeting the needs of a nation in one vital field.

The booklet of preceding chapters in this story of the packing industry will be mailed on request to Swift & Company, Union Stock Yards, Chicago, Illinois.

DANGERS OF A HOME-MADE WILL

An untrained man has been known to pick up a pistol and score a bulls-eye at the first shot. It was an accident.

So it is with many Wills, prepared by testators, according to their own ideas. Perhaps the wording will be such that the courts will give it the same meaning as the man who wrote it had it in mind. Perhaps, the Will is not rendered void by legal provisions of which the writer was ignorant. Perhaps the Executor named will have the training, the responsibility and the facilities to carry out completely the Will's intentions.

The sure way—the way that excludes the idea of accident—is to have your Will drawn by a competent attorney, designating this Bank as your Executor. Then leave that Will in our custody to be presented for probate at the proper time.

STOP IT! ORDER ISSUED TO CITY.

Paralleling of Power Lines Brings Federal Action.

War Industries Board Chief Cancels Seven Jobs.

Note is Directed to Public Service Commission.

Corroborating statements published in The Times relative to a conflict of opinion between the Bureau of Power and Light officials and Maj. George F. Sever of the War Industries Board, in the matter of paralleling power lines, Maj. Sever yesterday directed to Howard Robertson, president of the Public Service Commission, an order forbidding further progress on seven jobs of alleged paralleling.

The order reads, in part as follows:

"No. 1—The Albers Milling Company on Santa Fe avenue near Seventh street. The construction of this installation is not to be carried to completion until a further investigation is made by me. A portion of this installation has been done since the issuance of my order and I desire to investigate this matter in full before rendering a final decision.

"No. 2—Washington Iron Works, on Sacramento street, between Mateo and Wilson; to be left as found on November 1.

"No. 3—The Wilson & Willard Manufacturing Company, Sixteenth street, to be left as found on November 1.

"No. 4—On Mateo street at Jesse street: I found that there had been erected since October 4, three pole lengths of three No. 6 conductors, and two pole lengths of three No. 2 conductors, to connect the live lines running north on Mateo street nearly as far as Jesse street, with certain dead conductors running from just north of Jesse street to Colyton and Palmetto streets, and Molino street and Palmetto street. On Mateo street, as well as on Palmetto street, are distributing lines of both the Los Angeles Gas and Electric Corporation and the Southern California Edison Company. This is obviously such a distinct case of paralleling and duplicating that the following order will hold: 'These conductors are to be left as found on November 1, but no customers are to be taken on these lines, and no further extension of these lines or any part thereof north of Industrial street to parallel or duplicate other lines are to be made. No service to be rendered to any customers now served by the lines of the other companies.

"No. 5—Aggeler & Muser Company: Left as existing on November 1.

No. 6—Wood Manufacturing Company, Sixteenth and McGarry streets: This is not to be connected without authority from myself acting for the power section of the War Industries Board.

"No. 7—Hammond Lumber Company: This installation not to be completed nor connected without authority.

"No. 8—It is hereby ordered that in the case of a building where there are duplicate services now installed and the building is supplied through one meter which is the property of one of the power companies, the other company (i.e., either the Southern California Edison Company or the Los Angeles Gas and Electric Corporation, or the Bureau of Power and Light of the city of Los Angeles) shall not attempt to secure the business away from either of the other companies. The purpose of this order is to prevent the waste of material and labor in changing meters and service connections, and it is understood that this was recognized as a desirable order to be effective on November 2, 1918."

HEALTH TALK

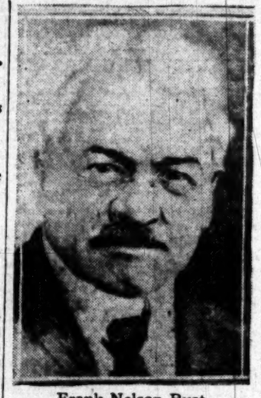
Spanish Influenza or Grip.

BY DR. LEE H. SMITH.

An old enemy is with us again, and whether we fight a German or a germ, we must put up a good fight, and not be afraid. The influenza runs a very brief course when the patient is careful, and if we keep the system in good condition and throw off the poisons which tend to accumulate within our bodies, we can escape the disease. Remember these three C's—a clean mouth, a clean skin, and clean bowels. To carry off poisons from the system and keep the bowels loose, daily doses of a pleasant laxative should be taken. Such a one is made of May-apple, leaves of aloe, root of jalap, and called Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets. Hot lemonade should be used freely if attacked by a cold, and the patient should be put to bed after a hot mustard foot-bath.

To prevent the attack of bronchitis or pneumonia and to control the pain, Anuric tablets should be obtained at the drug store, and one given every two hours, with lemonade. The Anuric tablets were first discovered by Dr. Pierce, and, as they flush the bladder and cleanse the kidneys, they carry away much of the poisons and the uric acid.

It is important that broths, milk, buttermilk, ice-cream and simple diet be given regularly to strengthen the system and increase the vital resistance. The fever is diminished by the use of the Anuric tablets, but, in addition, the forehead, arms and hands may be bathed with water (tepid) in which a tablespoonful of salaratus has been dissolved in a quart. After an attack of grip or pneumonia to build up and strengthen the system, obtain at the drug store a good iron tonic, called "Irontic" Tablets, or that well known herbal tonic, Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery.



Frank Nelson Rust,
From a photograph by Oscar Maurer of a portrait painted by Louie Burrell, the famous English artist.

LOVED MAN PASSES AWAY IN SLEEP.

FRANK NELSON RUST, PRINCE OF HOSPITALITY, IS DEAD. MOURNED BY MANY.

By Olive Gray.

For many days the friends of Frank Nelson Rust had watched and prayed, hoping against hope that he might remain among them.

Probably no man in Los Angeles, or in Southern California, had as many loving friends as he.

His house was a veritable home to his friends, for he understood hospitality as few understand it, he interpreted friendship as not many are able to interpret it. He comprehended sorrow and his charity mantled with mercy the shortcomings of others.

His "Little House Among the Tree Tops," so named from its location above the tops of the trees on the banks of the big arroyo, was the scene of many brilliant gatherings, and his big guest book bore names nationally and internationally famous, in letters, art, music and philosophy.

He loved the real things of life, and above all was devoted to the great out of doors and to California. Many a happy day in the open, enjoyed by artists, writers and musical people, was due to his planning and arrangement.

He especially loved the California mornings and during the long nights of his last illness he would inquire: "Is it nearly morning? Oh, I so love the morning!" Once, when asked if there was anything he wished to have, he spoke of the view from his windows, and then said, "I would like an armful of fresh eucalyptus leaves." They were brought and he fell asleep with them in his arms.

He gently slept and peacefully, drifting from out this dreamful state into the Great Beyond.

The world will be a sadder place because Frank Rust has passed away; earth will be more lonely; fewer will be the hours of happiness to those privileged to have known him; but his memory will be hallowed in many faithful hearts.

Funeral services for Mr. Rust were conducted yesterday afternoon in the chapel of Reynolds & Van Nuys, Pasadena, with Dr. Daniel F. Fox of the First Congregational Church officiating. In compliance with the present influenza regulations none but members of the immediate family were present at the chapel, though, by common consent, a group of those friends who were nearest and dearest to Mr. Rust were beside the grave in Mountain View Cemetery when he was laid to rest beside his mother. The pallbearers were Theodore Modra, Wayland Smith, William F. Towne, Charles F. Lantz, Oscar Maurer and William H. Cochran.

IS GRANTED DIVORCE FROM JUDGE WORKS.

DESERTION CHARGE WINS IN SECOND SUIT—NO DEFENSE IS MADE.

At exactly high noon yesterday Mrs. Harriet W. Works was granted a decree of divorce from Judge Lewis R. Works by Judge Hewitt, sitting in Department 13 at the Hall of Records. The charge was desertion. Mrs. Works's testimony was brief and the evidence of her corroborating witness, Mrs. Kate S. Greppin, was even briefer. Both declared that Judge Works had told them he had "deliberately and purposely" deserted his wife.

While the trial was going on, Judge Works sat in his own department in the Courthouse hearing a case. He made no defense to the action of his wife. Kenton A. Miller, counsel for Mrs. Works, offered in evidence a property settlement by the terms of which Judge Works gives Mrs. Works the home place, at No. 842 South Kingsley drive, and $200 a month.

The Works were married in 1902. The separation took place in September, 1916. The following December Judge Works told his wife, she testified, that he had purposely left her. He said he never intended to live with her as his wife.

Mrs. Works, since the separation, has been residing at the home place. Judge Works has rooms at a club. The first suit filed by Mrs. Works was dismissed. She later filed the second suit, tried yesterday.

FIND JOBS FOR MANY HERE.

During the past four months, the Federal Employment Bureau, of which Emil J. Bernatche, examiner, is in charge, has placed almost 30,000 men and women in jobs, according to the figures given out yesterday. The figures follow:

Women placed in industrial jobs July, 1142; August, 1162; September, 1244; and October, 1275; total, 4823.

Men placed in industrial jobs, July, 5643; August, 6121; September, 5955; and October, 5822; total, 23,641.

Men placed in commercial positions, which for the most part, were high-priced positions, July, 344; August, 379; September, 368, and October, 330; total, 1321. Grand total, for the four months, 29,835.

The influenza epidemic, which resulted in the quarantining of many mines and other industrial places employing a large number of men, has operated to reduce the number supplied within the last two weeks, it is stated, but the total for October was almost as large as for September, and only 200 less than August. The month of October showed the high water mark for the number of women placed in industrial and household positions.

Examiner Bernatche has been in charge of the new bureau since August 1, and the importance of the department along the line of furnishing employment to men and women has largely increased.

LABOR LEADERS FOMENT STRIFE.

Would Halt Shipbuilding on Entire Pacific Coast.

Are "Sore" Because Slackers are Being Weeded Out.

Government Expected to Step in if Strike is Called.

Union labor leaders are trying to "rib up" a strike of the shipyard workers of the Pacific Coast, and they are hopeful that they will have the various unions lined up so that the strike may be called next Tuesday morning, it became known yesterday.

Ostensibly, their grievance is regarding the recent readjustment of wages. The agitators at the Los Angeles Shipbuilding and Dry Dock Company's yard want a raise of 20 cents an hour. It is said that the recent readjustment of the wage schedule gives an average raise of 3½ cents per hour.

But behind this grievance is the fact, it is said, that labor leaders are sore because a firm hand has been placed upon the helm at the local shipyard, and there is systematic work in progress to weed out the inefficient men and the palpable slackers on their work.

It appears that a considerable number of men employed in the Los Angeles Harbor shipbuilding industry have come to the conclusion that government shipbuilding is a private snap, and have acted accordingly. An honest day's work for an exceedingly well-paid day does not seem to have entered into the scheme of things for some of the men at the shipyard, it appears. The result is that some of them are now ready for other jobs and others will soon be missing from the pay rolls.

So exercised have the labor leaders become over the situation, and their failure to get their proposed increase of 20 cents per hour, that some of them have gone to San Francisco to confer with labor troublemakers there and try to get them to join in the strike movement.

Probably no more unpropitious time could have been selected than the present, it is pointed out, to undertake to call off the men from the shipbuilding industry on the Pacific Coast, and especially at Los Angeles Harbor. The result would be, undoubtedly, that a thorough survey of each man's capabilities would follow, and the weeding out would be a benefit to the plants that are building ships for Uncle Sam. In addition to this, government officials themselves would doubtless have something to say to a body of men who would deliberately block the shipbuilding industry because incompetents were culled out from efficient and faithful workers, and because they could not coerce the government into granting their demands for an increase of 20 cents an hour, after all the facts had been carefully sifted and a new wage schedule had been announced.

A shipbuilders' strike at this time would be equal to killing the goose that lays the golden egg for many of the men now engaged in this profitable line of industry, it is declared.

SOLDIER-ACTOR DIES

Member of Coast Artillery Victim of Pneumonia after Brief Service.

Private Chester Ryckman, a young Los Angeles motion-picture comedian, who was sent to Fort Rosecrans two weeks ago, died Wednesday morning of pneumonia, four days after he contracted influenza. His bride of ten months is left a widow, at No. 230 South Beaudry avenue.

For the last two years, Mr. Ryckman, who was 21 years old, played heavies with Hughie Mack in L-Ko comedies. Previous to that he was a player at the Keystone studio. He was a member of Battery B, Twenty-fifth Coast Artillery, at Fort Rosecrans. His parents are on the way to Los Angeles from their home in Portland, Or., and funeral arrangements will be postponed until they arrive. The body is at Pierce Bros.

ADD ANOTHER STAR.

Deputy District-Attorney W. B. Heinecke Leaves for Officers' Training Camp in Texas.

Another star was added to the service flag in the District Attorney's office yesterday when Deputy District-Attorney W. B. Heinecke left for the officers' training camp at Waco, Tex. Mr. Heinecke applied for the first, and second camps, but was rejected each time, as he was over the age limit. When the last call came he again applied and as the age limit has been lifted he was accepted.

Mr. Heinecke has been an attache of the District Attorney's office for the last seven years, in charge of the complaint department. Before he left he was given a rousing farewell by the other members of the staff.

TO TRAINING CAMP.

Rugby Ross, Deputy County Assessor, left yesterday for Camp MacArthur, Waco, Tex., to train for a commission in the army. He is the son of the late Adna L. Ross, and is a brother of Gertrude Ross, the composer.

RED CROSS AFFAIRS

Work Has Just Begun.

Red Cross headquarters wants to make it very emphatic, in the light of the present peace talk, that the work in every branch of the Red Cross has just begun. The wounded men in the hospitals will have to have surgical dressings and hospital garments for at least a year to come. The civilian clothes necessary to relieve the stricken countries of Europe will tax the Red Cross to the limit. Red Cross workers must therefore realize that their work will be doubled. Wherefore, the services of every individual will be needed more than ever.

For Christmas Parcels.

The Red Cross announces, by the authority of the War Trade Board, that Christmas boxes can now be sent to individuals serving in the American Red Cross, Y.M.C.A., Knights of Columbus, Salvation Army, or similar organizations operating in connection with the military forces of the United States or her allies in Europe, and to individuals serving in the armies of our allies in Europe or other Allied expeditionary forces elsewhere. This permission covers shipments only for the personal use of the recipient and in no ways may be utilized for commercial purposes. All shipments must conform to the regulations of the War, Navy and Postoffice departments. All shipments other than those to the navy must be accompanied by the request of the recipient officially approved by a major or higher officer of the American Red Cross or of the Y.M.C.A., Knights of Columbus, Salvation Army, etc., except that the nearest relative of any individual mentioned above may, upon signing a satisfactory statement with the nearest Red Cross distributing station, send one Christmas package, which must conform to Red Cross regulations as regards weight, packing and contents. The official carton, which will contain three pounds, and is 3x4½ inches in size, will be donated by the Red Cross. Cartons, full shipping and other instructions may be obtained at the Christmas parcel headquarters, No. 930 South Main street, Los Angeles. The above scheme does not include shipments for prisoners of war, nor persons interned.
